AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 1, delete lines 16 through 22 in their entirety and insert the following:

"Art. 1124. Requirement of family information

D. A surrendering parent shall submit an updated statement of family history to the voluntary registry, as provided for in Article 1271, every five years after the initial execution of the statement of family history.

Art. 1271. Registration

A. Registration shall be by affidavit filed with the office of children and family services. ~~That~~ The office shall develop and furnish standardized affidavit forms and contact preference forms appropriate for effecting the purpose of this Chapter. Registration shall be effective upon filing and shall remain effective until withdrawn by the affiant's written request. The department may establish registration and renewal fees not to exceed twenty five dollars.

B.(1) Registration shall be effective upon filing and shall remain effective until withdrawn by the affiant's written request. A birth parent, or sibling of an adoptee who is a child of the birth parent, who registers with the voluntary registry may do any of the following:

(a) File a contact preference form indicating whether or not he desires to be contacted if a match is made.

(b) Consent to or prohibit the release of a noncertified copy of the adoptee's original birth certificate.

(c) Consent to or prohibit the release of his identifying information contained on any document filed with the voluntary registry.

(2) A birth parent who files a contact preference form with the registry shall be required to submit an updated statement of family history form to the registry upon filing and every five years thereafter.

C.(1) The department may establish registration and renewal fees not to exceed twenty-five dollars. An adoptee who registers with the voluntary registry may do any of the following:

(a) Request a noncertified copy of his original birth certificate.

(b) Request an updated statement of family history.

(c) File a contact preference form indicating whether or not he desires to be contacted if a match is made.

(d) Consent to or prohibit the release of his identifying information contained on any document filed with the voluntary registry.

(2)(a) If an adoptee requests a noncertified copy of his original birth certificate, the office of children and family services shall determine whether a birth parent has filed a consent with the voluntary registry authorizing the release of the information. Upon determination of whether a consent exists, the office of children and family services shall do the following:

(i) If a birth parent has consented to the release of the adoptee's original birth certificate, the office of children and family services shall coordinate with the vital records registry to facilitate the release of the noncertified copy of the original birth certificate to the adoptee. If only one birth parent has filed with the voluntary registry and consented to the release of the adoptee's original birth certificate, the name of the birth parent who has not consented shall be redacted before a noncertified copy of the original birth certificate is issued to the adoptee.

(ii) If a birth parent has not filed with the registry or has prohibited the release of the noncertified copy of the original birth certificate to the adoptee, the office of children and family services shall notify the adoptee of such and a copy of the noncertified copy of the original birth certificate shall not be issued.

(iii) If a birth parent has filed a contact preference form and an updated statement of family history, regardless of whether the birth parent has consented to or prohibited the release of the adoptee's original birth certificate, the office of children and family services shall issue a copy of the contact preference form and any updated statement of family history to the adoptee, but shall redact any identifying information if the birth parent has prohibited the release of any identifying information.

(b) If an adoptee requests an updated statement of family history, the office of children and family services shall determine whether a birth parent has submitted an updated statement of family history and shall issue a copy, if one is filed, to the adoptee. If a birth parent has submitted an updated statement of family history but has prohibited the release of any identifying information, the office
