The above bill was taken up with the amendments proposed by the Senate.

SENATE COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Senate Committee on Judiciary C to Reengrossed House Bill No. 1142 by Representative Burrell

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 1, line 3, after "Article 335.1(A)(1)" insert "and to enact Code of Criminal Procedure Article 330.3"

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, line 7, after "Registry;" insert "to provide relative to contradictory bail hearings for persons charged with certain felony offenses;"

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, line 11, after "reenacted" insert "and Code of Criminal Procedure Article 330.3 is hereby enacted"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 1, between lines 11 and 12, insert the following:

"Art. 330.3. Bail hearing for felony offenses against a family or household member or dating partner; detention

A. This Section may be cited as and referred to as "Gwen's Law."

B. A contradictory bail hearing, as provided for in this Article, shall be held prior to setting bail for a person in custody who is charged with a felony offense against the defendant's family or household member, as defined in R. S. 46:2132(4), or against the defendant's dating partner, as defined in R.S. 46:2151.

C. The court shall order a contradictory hearing to be held within five days, exclusive of weekends and legal holidays.

D. At the contradictory hearing the court, in addition to hearing whatever evidence it finds relevant, shall, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney, perform an ex parte examination of the evidence against the accused.

E. In addition to the factors listed in Code of Criminal Procedure Article 334, the court shall take into consideration the previous criminal record of the defendant and any potential threat or danger the defendant poses to the victim, the family of the victim, or to any member of the public, especially children. The court also shall perform a risk assessment that will give ample consideration to risk factors including substance abuse, gun ownership, record of violence, employment status, prior threats with dangerous weapon, threats to kill, forced sex, choking, control of daily activities, threats of suicide, threats to harm children, and any other relevant factors.

F. Following the contradictory hearing, upon proof by clear and convincing evidence either that the defendant might flee, or that the defendant poses a threat or danger to the victim, or that the defendant poses an imminent danger to any other person or the community, the judge or magistrate may order the defendant held without bail pending trial.

G. If bail is granted following the contradictory hearing, as a condition of bail the court may require a defendant to wear an electronic monitoring device and to be placed under active electronic monitoring. The conditions of the electronic monitoring shall be determined by the court and may include, but not be limited to, limitation of the defendant's activities outside the home and a curfew. The defendant may be required to pay a reasonable supervision fee to the supervising agency to defray the cost of the required electronic monitoring. A violation of the conditions of bail may be punishable by the forfeiture of bail and the issuance of a bench warrant for the defendant's arrest or remanding of the defendant to custody or a modification of the terms of bail.

AMENDMENT NO. 8

On page 2, delete lines 1 through 22 in their entirety and insert the following:

"relative to chlorination and iron and manganese control and disinfection of waste water discharged in compliance with such sewer system provider's permit, rules, regulations, and laws governing the operation of such sewer system provider.

C.(1) In addition to any other penalty or liability authorized by law that may be imposed upon a private water supply or sewer system provider that fails to meet applicable standards, a political subdivision may by ordinance adopt a remediation charge to be imposed upon such a system operating therein in accordance with such conditions and in such an amount as the political subdivision determines in order to implement the provisions of the Section.

(2) A private water supply or sewer system provider that is penalized by the state or political subdivision within which it operates at least two separate times within a consecutive twelve-month period due to failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations relative to water supply or wastewater treatment and discharge shall, upon request of the governing authority of the political subdivision, transfer such system to the political subdivision for just compensation or be subject to receivership pursuant to R.S. 30:2075.3 or R.S. 40:5.9. Such a transfer shall be subject to applicable rules, regulations, and laws governing the transfer of a permit, license, or certificate for a private water supply or sewer system provider and shall be subject to approval by the Public Service Commission.

D. The Department of Health and Hospitals shall provide technical assistance to private water providers to pursue possible solutions such as installing new wells with greater depths and to assist impacted populations to resolve their drinking water issues.

E. Private water supply providers that have on-site water filtration systems shall be required to maintain and utilize such systems. Any private water supply provider that fails to maintain and utilize any such system shall be subject to a fine by the Department of Health and Hospitals of one thousand dollars per day until the system is maintained and utilized.

Section 2. R.S. 40:4.15 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§4.15. Water systems; iron and manganese control

The office of public health of the Department of Health and Hospitals shall promulgate and adopt rules in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to implement iron and manganese control requirements for water systems.

Section 3. R.S. 33:43 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§43. Water supply and sewer system providers; receivership

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if a private water supply or sewer system provider located in any parish with a population of not less than one hundred seven thousand persons and not more than one hundred ten thousand persons according to the latest federal decennial census fails to comply with applicable laws and regulations concerning health standards and the failure to comply with such standards has caused a grave public emergency, the Department of Environmental Quality or the parish may petition the court to place the private water supply or sewer system provider into receivership in order to operate and maintain the system, collect any records relating to the current operation and users of the system, and collect money owed to the system.

Section 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any private water supplier or sewer system operator, who on January 1, 2014, conducts operations in three or fewer parishes.

Section 5. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable."

On motion of Rep. Stuart Bishop, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Stuart Bishop moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
