C. (1) A temporary restraining order issued in conjunction with a rule to show cause for a protective order filed in an action pursuant to the Protection from Family Violence Act, R.S. 46:2121 et seq., and pursuant to the Protection From Dating Violence Act, R.S. 46:2151, shall remain in force until a hearing is held on the rule for the protective order or for thirty days, whichever occurs first. If the initial rule to show cause is heard by a hearing officer, the temporary restraining order shall remain in force for fifteen days after the hearing or until the judge signs the protective order, whichever occurs last. At any time before the expiration of a temporary restraining order issued pursuant to this Paragraph, it may be extended by the court for a period not exceeding thirty days.

(2) In the event that the hearing on the rule for the protective order is continued by the court because of a declared state of emergency made in accordance with R.S. 29:724, any temporary restraining order issued in the matter shall remain in force for five days after the date of conclusion of the state of emergency. When a temporary restraining order remains in force under this Paragraph, the court shall reassign the rule for a protective order for hearing at the earliest possible time, but no later than five days after the date of conclusion of the state of emergency. The reassignment of the rule shall take precedence over all matters except older matters of the same character.

"§337. Unlawful use of an unmanned aircraft system.
A. Unlawful use of an unmanned aircraft system is the intentional use of an unmanned aircraft system to conduct surveillance of, gather evidence or collect information about, or photographically or electronically record a targeted facility without the prior written consent of the owner of the targeted facility.
B. As used in this Section, the following definitions shall apply:
(1) "Unmanned aircraft system" means an unmanned, powered aircraft that does not carry a human operator, can be autonomous or remotely piloted or operated, and can be expendable or recoverable. "Unmanned aircraft system" does not include:
(a) A satellite orbiting the earth.
(b) An unmanned aircraft system used by the federal government or a person who is acting pursuant to a contract with the federal government to conduct surveillance of specific activities.
(c) An unmanned aircraft system used by the state government or a person who is acting pursuant to a contract with the state government to conduct surveillance of specific activities.
(d) An unmanned aircraft system used by a local government law enforcement agency.
(2) "Targeted facility" means the following systems:
(a) Petroleum and alumina refineries.
(b) Chemical and rubber manufacturing facilities.
(c) Nuclear power generation facilities.
(3) "Federal government" means the United States of America and any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof.
(4) "State government" means the state of Louisiana and any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof.
C.(1) Nothing in this Section shall prohibit a person from using an unmanned aircraft system to conduct surveillance of, gather evidence or collect information about, or photographically or electronically record his own property that is:
(a) Located on his own immovable property.
(b) Located on immovable property owned by another under a valid lease, servitude, right-of-way, right of use, permit, license, or other right.
(2) Third persons retained by the owner of the property described in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection shall not be prohibited under this Section from using an unmanned aircraft system to conduct activities described in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection.
D. The provisions of this Section shall apply unless preempted by applicable federal law or by regulations adopted by the Federal Aviation Administration.

SENA TE COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Senate Committee on Judiciary C to Reengrossed House Bill No. 1142 by Representative Burrell

AMENDMENT NO. 1
On page 1, line 3, after "Article 335.1(A)(1)" insert "and to enact Code of Criminal Procedure Article 330.3"

AMENDMENT NO. 2
On page 1, line 7, after "Registry:" insert "to provide relative to contradictory bail hearings for persons charged with certain felony offenses;"

AMENDMENT NO. 3
On page 1, line 11, after "reenacted" insert "and Code of Criminal Procedure Article 330.3 is hereby enacted"

AMENDMENT NO. 4
On page 1, between lines 11 and 12, insert the following:

"Art. 330.3. Bail hearing for felony offenses against a family or household member or dating partner; detention

A. This Section may be cited as and referred to as "Gwen's Law."

B. A contradictory bail hearing, as provided for in this Article, shall be held prior to setting bail for a person in custody who is charged with a felony offense against the defendant's family or household member, as defined in R.S. 46:2136.2(4), or against the defendant's dating partner, as defined in R.S. 46:2151.

C. The court shall order a contradictory hearing to be held within five days, exclusive of weekends and legal holidays.

D. At the contradictory hearing the court, in addition to hearing whatever evidence it finds relevant, shall, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney, perform an ex parte examination of the evidence against the accused.

E. In addition to the factors listed in Code of Criminal Procedure Article 334, the court shall take into consideration the previous criminal record of the defendant and any potential threat or danger the defendant poses to the victim, the family of the victim, or to any member of the public, especially children. The court also shall perform a risk assessment that will give ample consideration to risk factors including substance abuse, gun ownership, record of violence, employment status, prior threats with dangerous weapon, threats to kill, forced sex, choking, control of daily activities, threats of suicide, threats to harm children, and any other relevant factors.

F. Following the contradictory hearing, upon proof by clear and convincing evidence either that the defendant might flee, or that the defendant poses a threat or danger to the victim, or that the defendant poses an imminent danger to any other person or the community, the judge or magistrate may order the defendant held without bail pending trial.

G. If bail is granted following the contradictory hearing, as a condition of bail the court may require a defendant to wear an electronic monitoring device and to be placed under active electronic monitoring. The conditions of the electronic monitoring shall be determined by the court and may include, but not be limited to, limitation of the defendant's activities outside the home and a curfew. The defendant may be required to pay a reasonable supervision fee to the supervising agency to defray the cost of the required electronic monitoring. A violation of the conditions of bail may be punishable by the forfeiture of bail and the issuance of a bench warrant for the defendant's arrest or remanding of the defendant to custody or a modification of the terms of bail.

Rep. Montoucet sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Montoucet to Re-Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 14 by Senator Guillory

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 1, delete line 2 in its entirety and insert in lieu thereof: "To amend and reenact R.S. 11:102(B)(3)(d)(vi), 2256(A)(1), (2), and (4) and 2257(C) are relative to Louisiana public retirement systems, plans, or funds; to provide relative to benefit accrual rates for new hires in the Firefighters’ Retirement System; to provide relative to Deferred Retirement Option Plan in the Firefighters’ Retirement System; to provide for technical changes;"

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 2, between lines 23 and 24, insert:

> §2256. Benefits; refund of contributions, application, and payment
>
> A.(1) Any member of this system who has been a member for at least one year and who meets any of the following shall be entitled to retire from service:
>
> (a) the member has completed at least twenty-five years of creditable service, who has been a member of this system for at least one year, regardless of age, or
> (b) any member who has completed at least twenty years of creditable service, who has been a member of this system for at least one year, and who has attained the age of fifty years;
>
> (c) any member who has completed at least twelve years of service, who has been a member of this system for at least one year, and who has attained the age of fifty-five shall be entitled to retire from service.
>
> (2) Deferred retirement. Any member who has been a member for at least one year and who meets one of the following shall be entitled to a deferred retirement benefit as indicated:
>
> (a) Any member who has completed twenty or more years of creditable service, and at least one year of which shall be as a member of this system, and who leaves employment covered by this system before attaining age fifty shall be entitled to a retirement benefit beginning at age fifty.

(b) Any member who has completed twelve years of creditable service, and at least one year of which shall be as a member of this system, and who leaves employment covered by this system before attaining age fifty-five shall be entitled to a retirement benefit beginning at age fifty-five.

* * *

(4) Upon such retirement, the member shall be paid an annual retirement allowance, as follows:

(a) For any member whose first date of employment occurred on or before June 30, 2014, the retirement allowance shall equal three and one-third percent of his average final compensation multiplied by his total years of creditable service. The provisions of this Subparagraph shall also apply to any member whose first date of employment occurred on or after July 1, 2014, if such member is approved for disability benefits for an injury sustained in the line of duty or if such member is killed in the line of duty, and if the applicable law provides for the calculation of disability or survivor benefits based on a benefit accrual rate.

(b) For any member whose first date of employment occurred on or after July 1, 2014, the retirement allowance shall equal the following:

(i) Three percent of the member's average final compensation multiplied by his total years of creditable service if the member has less than thirty years of creditable service on the effective date of retirement.

(ii) Three and one-third percent of the member's average final compensation multiplied by his total years of creditable service if the member has thirty or more years of creditable service on the effective date of retirement.

(c) However, the annual retirement allowance shall not exceed one hundred percent of the member's average final compensation. The member shall not be paid any amount in excess of the maximum amount permitted under Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The foregoing sentence shall not prohibit payments to a member from an excess benefit plan established pursuant to Section 415(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as provided in Section 2272 of this Chapter.

* * *

§2257. Deferred Retirement Option Plan

* * *

C. The duration of participation in the plan shall be specified and shall not exceed three years; the following:

(1) Three years for any member who has less than thirty years of creditable service.

(2) Five years for any member who has at least thirty years of creditable service.

* * *

Section 2. Any person who has at least thirty years of creditable service and who is participating in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan in the Firefighters' Retirement System on the effective date of this Act shall be allowed to extend his participation in such plan up to the five-year period provided for in this Act.

"§2263. Exemption from execution

A. The right of a person to a pension, an annuity, or a retirement allowance, to the return of contributions, the pension, annuity, or retirement allowance itself, any optional benefit or any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this Subpart Chapter, and the money or monies in the various funds created by this Subpart Chapter are hereby exempt from any state or municipal tax and exempt from levy and sale, garnishment, attachment, or any other process whatsoever, except as provided in R.S. 11:292, and shall be unassignable except as in this Subpart Chapter specifically otherwise provided.

B. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, including Chapter 1 of Title XIII of the Louisiana Children's Code, any funds payable from the system shall be subject to the provisions of R.S. 11:292 only if a certified copy of a court order or judgment bearing the signature of the issuing court or administrative law judge is first provided to the system. If no certified copy of such order or judgment has been received by the system, the system shall continue to pay the entire amount of any benefit or refund of contributions to the former member, retiree, designated beneficiary, survivor benefit recipient, or the estate of a deceased member, as applicable. Until the system is in receipt of the certified order or judgment required by this Subsection, the system shall not be required to withhold any moneys ordered garnished, and after receipt, the system shall be required to enforce the garnishment only prospectively.

§2256. Benefits; refund of contributions, application, and payment
A. (1) Any member of this system who has been a member for at least one year and who meets any of the following shall be entitled to retire from service:

   (a) The member has completed at least twenty-five years of creditable service, or the member has been a member of this system for at least one year, regardless of age or creditable service.

   (b) Any member who has completed at least twenty years of creditable service, or the member has been a member of this system for at least one year, and who has attained the age of fifty years.

   (c) Any member who has completed at least twelve years of service, or the member has been a member of this system for at least one year, and who has attained the age of fifty-five years.

   (2) Deferred retirement. Any member who has been a member for at least one year and who meets one of the following shall be entitled to a deferred retirement benefit as indicated:

      (a) Any member who has completed twenty or more years of creditable service, or at least one year of which shall be a member of this system, and who leaves employment covered by this system before attaining age fifty shall be entitled to a retirement benefit beginning at age fifty.

      (b) Any member who has completed twelve years of creditable service, and at least one year of which shall be a member of this system, and who leaves employment covered by this system before attaining age fifty-five shall be entitled to a retirement benefit beginning at age fifty-five.

      (4) Upon such retirement, the member shall be paid an annual retirement allowance, as follows:

      (a) For any member whose first date of employment occurred on or before June 30, 2014, the retirement allowance shall equal one and one-third percent of his average final compensation multiplied by his total years of creditable service. The provisions of this Subparagraph shall also apply to any member whose first date of employment occurred on or after July 1, 2014, if such member is approved for disability benefits for an injury sustained in the line of duty or if such member is killed in the line of duty, and if the applicable law provides for the calculation of disability or survivor benefits based on a benefit accrual rate.

      (b) For any member whose first date of employment occurred on or after July 1, 2014, the retirement allowance shall equal the following:

         (i) Three percent of the member's average final compensation multiplied by his total years of creditable service if the member has less than thirty years of creditable service on the effective date of retirement.

         (ii) Three and one-third percent of the member's average final compensation multiplied by his total years of creditable service if the member has thirty or more years of creditable service on the effective date of retirement.

      (c) However, the annual retirement allowance shall not exceed one hundred percent of his average final compensation. The member shall not be paid any amount in excess of the maximum amount permitted under Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The foregoing sentence shall not prohibit payments to a member from an excess benefit plan established pursuant to Section 415(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as provided in Section 2272 of this Chapter.

§2257. Deferred Retirement Option Plan

C. The duration of participation in the plan shall be specified and shall not exceed three years. The following:

   (1) Three years for any member who has less than thirty years of creditable service.

   (2) Five years for any member who has at least thirty years of creditable service.

AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 17, between lines 17 and 18, insert the following:

"Section 3. Any person who has at least thirty years of creditable service and who is participating in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan in the Firefighters’ Retirement System on the effective date of this Act shall be allowed to extend his participation in the plan up to the five-year period provided for in this Act."

AMENDMENT NO. 8

On page 17, at the beginning of line 18, change "Section 3." to "Section 4."

Point of Order

Rep. Pearson asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled that the above amendments were not germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

On motion of Rep. Montoucet, the amendments were withdrawn.

Rep. Montoucet sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

relative to chlorination and iron and manganese control and disinfection of waste water discharged in compliance with such sewer system provider's permit, rules, regulations, and laws governing the operation of such sewer system provider.

C.(1) In addition to any other penalty or liability authorized by law that may be imposed upon a private water supply or sewer system provider that fails to meet applicable standards, a political subdivision may by ordinance adopt a remediation charge to be imposed upon such a system operating therein in accordance with such conditions and in such an amount as the political subdivision determines in order to implement the provisions of the Section.

(2) A private water supply or sewer system provider that is penalized by the state or political subdivision within which it operates at least two separate times within a consecutive twelve-month period due to failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations relative to water supply or wastewater treatment and discharge shall, upon request of the governing authority of the political subdivision, transfer such system to the political subdivision for just compensation or be subject to receivership pursuant to R.S. 30:2075.3 or R.S. 40:5.9. Such a transfer shall be subject to applicable rules, regulations, and laws governing the transfer of a permit, license, or certificate for a private water supply or sewer system provider and shall be subject to approval by the Public Service Commission.

D. The Department of Health and Hospitals shall provide technical assistance to private water providers to pursue possible solutions such as installing new wells with greater depths and to assist impacted populations to resolve their drinking water issues.

E. Private water supply providers that have on-site water filtration systems shall be required to maintain and utilize such systems. Any private water supply provider that fails to maintain and utilize any such system shall be subject to a fine by the Department of Health and Hospitals of one thousand dollars per day until the system is maintained and utilized.

Section 2. R.S. 40:4.15 is hereby enacted to read as follows:
§4.15. Water systems; iron and manganese control

The office of public health of the Department of Health and Hospitals shall promulgate and adopt rules in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to implement iron and manganese control requirements for water systems.

Section 3. R.S. 33:43 is hereby enacted to read as follows:
§43. Water supply and sewer system providers; receivership

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if a private water supply or sewer system provider located in any parish with a population of not less than one hundred seven thousand persons and not more than one hundred ten thousand persons according to the latest federal decennial census fails to comply with applicable laws and regulations concerning health standards and the failure to comply with such standards has caused a grave public emergency, the Department of Environmental Quality or the parish may petition the court to place the private water supply or sewer system provider into receivership in order to operate and maintain the system, collect any records relating to the current operation and users of the system, and collect money owed to the system.

Section 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any private water supplier or sewer system operator, who on January 1, 2014, conducts operations in three or fewer parishes.

Section 5. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.”

On motion of Rep. Stuart Bishop, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Stuart Bishop moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
