"Art. 693. Enclosed estate; voluntary act

If an estate becomes enclosed as a result of a voluntary act or omission of its owner, the neighbors are not bound to furnish a passage to him or his successors.

If the owner of an estate deprives himself of access to a public utility as a result of his voluntary act or omission, his neighbors are not bound to furnish to him or his successors a servitude for access to that utility.

Art. 694. Enclosed estate; voluntary alienation or partition

When in the case of partition, or a voluntary alienation of an estate or of a part thereof, property alienated or partitioned becomes enclosed, passage shall be furnished gratuitously by the owner of the land on which the passage was previously exercised, even if it is not the shortest route to the public road or utility, and even if the act of alienation or partition does not mention a servitude of passage.

When in the case of partition, or a voluntary alienation of an estate or of a part thereof, properly alienated or partitioned becomes deprived of access to a public utility, a utility servitude shall be furnished gratuitously by the owner of the land on which access to the public utility previously existed, even if it is not the route that otherwise would be selected under Article 692, and even if the act of alienation or partition does not mention a utility servitude.

Art. 696.1. Utility; definition; scope

As used in this Section, a utility is a service such as electricity, water, sewer, gas, telephone, cable television, and other commonly used power and communication networks, required for the operation of an ordinary household or business of the kind commonly used in the operation of an ordinary household, whether the service is provided to a household or business.

The utility servitude shall be limited to the rights reasonably necessary to provide utility services to the dominant estate. The burden imposed on the servient estate shall not be substantially different from that required to provide the utility to an ordinary household.

Any new or additional maintenance burden upon the servient estate resulting from the utility servitude shall be the responsibility of the owner of the dominant estate.

B. The shares of a credit union are not shall only be subject to a twenty percent of the stock transfer tax when issued by the corporation or when transferred from one member to another. No fees or taxes nor any of the stipulations as to capital stock set forth in general statutes for corporations apply to credit unions.

Section 2. R.S. 12:302(L) and 425 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§302. Acts not considered transacting business
Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign corporation or a business association shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state, for the purpose of being required to procure a certificate of authority pursuant to R.S. 12:301, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

L. No foreign corporation or business association of the type described in Subsection K of this section and confining its business operations in Louisiana to the activities described in said Subsection K shall be required to pay any greater than twenty percent of any tax or any fee required to be paid by foreign corporations or business associations under any law of this state; such exemption, however, shall not include ad valorem taxes assessed against any real property which such foreign corporations or business associations may own in this state. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any foreign corporation or business association to do business in violation of the small loan law of this state, nor of the laws of Louisiana governing the organization and operation of homesteads, building and loan associations or societies, or savings and loan associations or societies.

§425. Taxation
Each cooperative shall pay annually, on or before the first day of July, to the department of revenue, a fee of ten dollars for each one hundred persons or fraction thereof to whom electricity is supplied within the state by it, but shall be exempt from eighty percent of all other excise and income taxes whatsoever.

Section 3. R.S. 47:48, 51, 158(C) and (D), 246(A), 287.71(B)(2), (3), (4), and (6), 287.73(C)(4), 287.86(A)(introductory paragraph), 287.732(B)(2), 287.738(F)(1) and (G), and 287.745(B), are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§48. Exclusion from gross income; interest on Louisiana state or local government obligations
The Eighty percent of the amount of interest received upon obligations of the State of Louisiana, or any political or municipal subdivision thereof, to such extent as is now exempt by law shall not be included in gross income.

§158. Basis for depletion

C. Percentage depletion for oil and gas wells. In the case of oil and gas wells the allowance for depletion under R.S. 47:66 shall be twenty percent of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to eighty percent of any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed fifty percent of the net income of the taxpayer, computed without allowance for depletion, from the property except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under R.S. 47:66 be less than it would be if computed without reference to this Subsection.

D. Percentage depletion for coal and metal mines and sulphur. The allowance for depletion under R.S. 47:66 shall be, in the case of coal mines, four percent, in the case of metal mines, fifteen percent, and in the case of sulphur mines or deposits, twenty-three percent. Such allowance, computed without allowance for depletion, from the property. Such allowance shall not exceed fifty percent of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property. A taxpayer making his first return under this Chapter or under Act 21 of 1934 in respect of a property, shall state whether he elects to have the depletion allowance for such property for the taxable year for which the return is made computed with or without regard to percentage depletion, and the depletion allowance in respect of such property for such year and all succeeding taxable years shall be computed according to the election thus made. If the taxpayer fails to make such statement in the return, the depletion allowance for such property for all taxable years shall be computed without reference to percentage depletion. This Sub-section shall not be construed as granting a new election to any taxpayer relative to any property with respect to which he has filed a return under Act 21 of 1934.

§287.71. Modifications to federal gross income

B. There shall be subtracted from gross income determined under federal law, unless already excluded therefrom, the following items:

(2) Funds. Eighty percent of the funds accrued by a corporation engaged in operating a public transportation system from any federal, state, or municipal governmental entity to subsidize the operation and maintenance of such a transportation system.

(3) Refunds. Eighty percent of the refunds of Louisiana corporation income tax received during the taxable year.

(4) Interest. Eighty percent of the interest on obligations or securities issued by the state of Louisiana or its political or municipal subdivisions.

(6) Amounts. Eighty percent of the amounts received as dividend income from banking corporations organized under the laws of Louisiana, from national banking corporations doing business in Louisiana, and from capital stock associations whose stock is subject to ad valorem taxation.

§287.73. Modifications to deductions from gross income allowed by federal law

C. Additions. The following items are declared allowable as deductions in the computation of net income and shall be added to the deductions allowed under federal law to the extent not already included therein:

(4) Expenses disallowed by I.R.C. Section 280(C). Expenses. Eighty percent of expenses which would otherwise be deductible under federal law, but for the disallowance provisions of I.R.C. Section 280(C), relative to certain expenses for which credits are allowable.

§287.845. Deductions from gross income; depletion

B. In the case of oil and gas wells, the percentage depletion provided for in Subsection A shall be twenty-eight percent of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to eighty percent any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed forty percent of the net income of the taxpayer, computed without allowance for depletion, from the property. In determining net income from the property, federal income taxes shall be considered an expense.

On page 2, delete lines 11 through 13 and insert the following:

"G. Deduction for hurricane recovery benefits. Any Eighty percent of any gratuitous grant, loan, or other benefit directly or indirectly provided to a taxpayer by a hurricane recovery entity as defined in R.S. 47:293 shall be allowed as a deduction if such benefit was included in federal adjusted gross income.

§287.745. Deductions from gross income; depletion

B. In the case of oil and gas wells, the percentage depletion provided for in Subsection A shall be twenty-eight percent of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to eighty percent any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed forty percent of the net income of the taxpayer, computed without allowance for depletion, from the property. In determining net income from the property, federal income taxes shall be considered an expense.

Section 4. R.S. 51:3092 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§3092. Corporation income and franchise tax exemption

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any corporation that is a LCDFI as provided for in this Chapter shall be exempt from the corporation income tax and the corporation franchise tax levied pursuant to Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 for five consecutive taxable periods. The exemption from the corporation income tax shall commence with the taxable period in which the capital company is certified by the commissioner. The exemption from the corporation franchise tax shall commence with the taxable period next following the taxable period in which certification as a LCFI is obtained from the commissioner.

Section 5. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all exclusions from taxable income and all claims for deductions made on any return filed on or after July 1, 2015, regardless of the taxable year to which the return relates."

On motion of Rep. Robideaux, the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Rep. Robideaux, the bill, as amended, was ordered engrossed and passed to its third reading.

shall fix the exact place and time for presenting and opening of the bids. The presenting and opening of the bids shall be publicly performed on that day. Bids will be publicly read whenever interested parties are present. The practice of dividing proposed or needed purchases into separate installments of less than twenty-five thousand dollars each for the purpose of evading this provision is expressly prohibited.

(d) If, in the judgment of the nonprofit corporation, no satisfactory bid has been received in any case, it may reject all bids. In such case, it shall advertise for new bids as provided in this Paragraph. Until a satisfactory contract is awarded, it may authorize the purchasing agent to make such open market purchases of the commodities involved as are urgently required to meet the requirements for not more than thirty days.

(e) The nonprofit corporation may reject a bid for cause. A written record of the reasons for the rejection shall be produced and retained.

(f) All documents relating to the process outlined in this Paragraph, including notices, bids, and justifications for rejecting bids shall be submitted to the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget any time the committee is required to approve a contract.

(6) Copies of all contracts entered into pursuant to this Section, including all subcontracts and all such contracts with persons who directly provide goods or services to any institution in the community and technical college system pursuant, however indirectly, to this Section, shall be submitted to and retained by the nonprofit corporation. All such contracts shall be public records in accordance with R.S. 44:1 et seq. and the nonprofit corporation shall act as custodian of such records.

(7) All financial records of the nonprofit corporation are public records pursuant to R.S. 44:1.

(8) No member of the governing body of the nonprofit corporation shall be compensated for such service. Such members may be reimbursed for travel expenses directly associated with their service on such body, but all such reimbursement is subject to the same limitations and requirements as are applicable to travel by state employees.

(9) The nonprofit corporation shall not receive any public funds pursuant to a cooperative endeavor agreement entered into pursuant to this Section.

(10) No funds of the nonprofit corporation or any subsidiary thereof shall be used for entertaining expenses or retaining a lobbyist.

(11) All meetings of the governing body of the nonprofit corporation are subject to the Open Meetings Law.
