"an act of domestic abuse or activity directly related to domestic abuse has occurred on the leased premises and the victim is a lessee or a lessee's household member. However, if the continued presence of a domestic abuse offender in, or in close proximity to, the lessee's residential dwelling or apartment results in one or more additional violent disturbances or altercations and those disturbances or altercations pose an imminent threat to the safety or peaceable possession of the premises by the lessee or other residents, then the lessor may evict the lessee, even if the presence of the domestic abuse offender is invited or uninvited by the lessee. In such evictions, at the lessor's sole discretion, the lessor may permit the lessee to relocate to a different residential dwelling or apartment, provided that another residential dwelling or apartment is available and the lessee otherwise meets the lessor's qualification standards.

(2) An applicant, lessee, or any household member of an applicant or lessee who is or was the victim of domestic abuse, and who seeks protection under this Section, shall produce to the lessor reasonable documentation of the domestic abuse on or before the date of the lease application, lease termination, lease non-renewal, or before the judgment or order of eviction is rendered. Failure of the applicant, lessee, or household member of any applicant or lessee to timely produce such reasonable documentation shall preclude and act as a complete bar to that applicant, lessee, or household member asserting claims or causes of action against the lessor for breach of this Subsection.

(3) A lessor who has not yet been given reasonable documentation of the abuse by the lessee and who issues an eviction notice or a notice to vacate to any lessee for any reason allowed under an existing lease agreement, including damage to leased premises, shall not be penalized under this Section. However, if the lessor receives from the lessee reasonable documentation of domestic abuse before the judgment or order of eviction is rendered, then the lessor shall grant the lessee's request for accommodation.

"I. Contesting ordinance or resolution; time limit. Any ordinance or resolution adopted by the district authorizing the pledge of tax increments collected, as provided in this Section, to secure bonds, debt obligations, or any other authorized financing shall be published at least twice in the official journal of the city of Lake Charles within 10 days after adoption. Such publication shall include a notice advising the public that for thirty days after the date of last publication, any person in interest may contest the legality of the ordinance or resolution and of any provision therein made for the security and payment of the debt obligation or the levy and collection of such taxes by filing the appropriate legal action in the Fourteenth Judicial District Court of Calcasieu Parish. After that time, no one shall have any cause of action to test the regularity, formality, legality, or effectiveness of the ordinance or resolution, and provision thereof for any cause whatever. Thereafter, it shall be conclusively presumed that every legal requirement for the levy and collection of taxes, the issuance of bonds or other debt obligations, or the pledge of tax increments collected, including all things pertaining to the authorizing thereof, has been complied with. No court shall have authority to inquire into any of these matters after the thirty day period after publication.

II. Term. The district shall dissolve and cease to exist one year after the date all bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness of the district, including refunding bonds are paid in full as to both principal and interest; however, under no event shall the district have an existence of less than three years.
