b. ~~The appointing authority shall discharge from the service any employee whom he deems guilty of violating any one or more of the provisions of this Section. The board may, upon its own initiative, investigate any officer or employee in the classified service whom it reasonably believes guilty of violating any one or more of the provisions of this Section. The board shall, within thirty days after receiving the written charges, hold a public hearing and investigation and determine whether such charges are true and correct. If the board should find upon its investigation of any employee that he has violated any of the foregoing provisions, the board shall order the appointing authority to forthwith discharge the guilty employee from the service and the appointing authority shall forthwith discharge the employee; conduct an investigation of any person alleged to have violated a provision of this Paragraph, unless a request by the appointing authority is made to the board to conduct such an investigation. If as a result of such investigation the employee is determined to be guilty of violating one or more provisions of this Paragraph, he shall be suspended for thirty work days without pay for a first violation and discharged for a second violation. However, any employee found to have violated R.S. 33:2504(A)(4)(c) shall be terminated upon the determination of such a violation. The board may, upon its own initiative or upon the request of the appointing authority, investigate any officer or employee in the classified service whom it reasonably believes guilty of violating any one or more of the provisions. Any citizen, taxpayer, municipal officer, or employee may file with the board detailed charges in writing against any employee in the classified service for violating any provision of this Paragraph. The board shall, within thirty days after receiving the written charges, hold a public hearing and investigation and determine whether such charges are true and correct. If the board finds, upon its investigation, that an employee has violated any provision of this Paragraph, the board shall order the appointing authority to suspend the employee without pay for thirty work days for a first violation and mandate educational training on prohibited political activities. If the board determines an employee has violated any provision of this Paragraph for a second time, the board shall order the discharge of the employee from the service, and the appointing authority shall discharge the employee.~~

c. ~~Whoever violates this Section is found to have violated a provision of this Paragraph twice shall be subject to the penalties provided in paragraph 37 R.S. 33:2507. In addition any employee in the classified service who is discharged because of violating a~~

~~foregoing provision of this Paragraph shall not again be eligible for employment or public office in the classified service for a period of six years from the time of his discharge.~~
