§1762. Reemployment Part-time reemployment of retirees

A.(1) Whenever a retiree receiving normal retirement benefits becomes reemployed by an employer such that he does not meet the definition of an employee and his monthly earnings are equal to or less than the difference between his monthly average final compensation and his monthly retirement benefit, his retirement benefits shall continue and he shall not be a member of the system.

(2) Whenever a retiree receiving normal retirement benefits becomes reemployed by an employer such that he does not meet the definition of an employee and his monthly earnings exceed the difference between his monthly average final compensation and his monthly retirement benefit, his retirement benefits shall be reduced by the amount his monthly earnings exceed the difference between his monthly average final compensation and his monthly retirement benefit for every month of such employment and he shall not be a member of the system.

B. For a retired member first reemployed on or after July 1, 2016, during a period of reemployment by an employer without his meeting the definition of an employee, the retiree and his employer shall make contributions to the retirement system as provided by this Chapter, but the retiree shall receive no additional retirement benefit in the retirement system. Upon termination of reemployment, employee contributions paid since reemployment shall, upon application, be refunded to the retiree without interest. The retirement system shall retain the employer contributions and interest on contributions made pursuant to this Subsection.

* * * *

§1762.1. Full-time reemployment of retirees

A.(1) If a retiree receiving a normal benefit becomes employed by an employer as an employee on or after July 1, 2017, the retired member's retirement benefit shall be suspended and the retired member shall be a member of the system. Upon his subsequent separation from service, the system shall resume payments of the retired member's original benefit.

(2) If the retiree worked for more than twelve months, he shall receive a supplemental benefit based on his salary and service earned during reemployment using the payment option elected by the member for his original retirement benefit. If the retiree is reemployed for a period of less than twelve months, he shall not earn a supplemental benefit and the system shall return the employee contributions to the member without interest and retain the contributions paid by the employer.

B. The supplemental benefit when combined with the original benefit shall not exceed the final compensation figure used to compute the supplemental benefit.

C. If a retiree receiving a normal benefit becomes employed by an employer as an employee prior to July 1, 2017, the retired member may elect to have his benefit suspended and be a member of the system pursuant to this Section.

AMENDMENT NO. 4
