Point of Order

Rep. Gregory Miller asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether House Bill No. 472 levies a tax or a fee, and whether it would require two-thirds vote of the elected members to finally pass the House.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled the Board was constitutionally created and therefore, would impose a fee, and would require the favorable vote of a majority of the elected members to finally pass the House.

(2) When the fire marshal finds a conveyance device to be inoperable or not in compliance with applicable safety standards, he shall order the owner to have the conveyance device inspected and brought into compliance with applicable safety standards.

(3) Whoever fails to comply with an order issued by the fire marshal shall be first issued a warning and ordered to comply with such order."

AMENDMENT NO. 11
On page 4, delete lines 16 through 23 in their entirety and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"§1664.5. Exemptions to licensure and equipment

A. The requirements for licensure shall not apply to any of the following persons or entities:

(1) An officer or employee of the United States, this state, or any political subdivision of either, while engaged in the performance of his official duties within the course and scope of his employment with the United States, this state, or any political subdivision of either. However, no person or entity excepted from licensure pursuant to this Subpart shall engage in the certification, inspection, installation, integration, sale, or service of special locking, fire detection and alarm, fire sprinkler, fire suppression systems, or portable fire extinguishers and fire hoses.

(2) Any sworn police, fire, or other peace officer or certified medical technician may open any lock or locked motor vehicle while engaged in the performance of his official duties within the course and scope of his employment, provided that he receives no additional compensation for such services.

(3) Any owner, management firm, or public institution and such person's or entity's employees while such person or entity is certifying, inspecting, installing, integrating, selling, and servicing mechanical locks, intrusion alarm systems, or closed circuit television alarm systems, only on the premises of the owner or public institution during the normal course and scope of his duties.

(4) A general contractor licensed by the State Licensing Board for Contractors and his direct employees or a building owner and his direct employees performing the installation or removal of complete mechanical lock sets when doing so in the course of residential or commercial new construction or remodeling.

(5) Any automotive service dealer, lock manufacturer, or manufacturer's employee engaged in servicing, installing, repairing, or rebuilding automotive locks.

(6) Any employee of a towing service, or an automobile club, while such person is opening automotive locks in the normal course of his duties.

(7) Any merchant or retail store that is in the business of selling, servicing, or installing intrusion alarms for motor vehicles."
This exception from licensure shall also apply to the employees of the merchant or retail store but only as to work performed by them on behalf of the exempted employer.

(8) Any merchant or retail store that is in the business of selling intrusion alarm systems or closed circuit television systems or household fire warning systems at retail to an individual end user for self-installation. This exception from licensure shall also apply to the employees of the merchant or retail store but only as to work performed by them on behalf of the exempted employer.

(9) Any merchant or retail store that is in the business of re-coding new locks on the retail premises only or duplicating keys, except for those keys which are proprietary and those marked "do not duplicate" or "master key". This exception from licensure shall also apply to the employees of the merchant or retail store but only as to work performed by them on behalf of the exempted employer.

(10) Any manufacturer, and his employee or representative, who acts as a consultant to a licensed firm in the certifying, inspecting, installation, integrating, programming, selling, and servicing of life safety and property protection systems regulated by this Subpart while under the direct supervision of the licensed firm.

(11) Any gate manufacturer or merchant that is in the business of installing, servicing, repairing, rebuilding, reprogramming, or maintaining electronic garage door devices. This exception from licensure shall also apply to the employees of the manufacturer or merchant but only as to work performed by them on behalf of the exempted employer.

(12) A firm or person licensed to perform electrical work by the State Licensing Board for Contractors pursuant to R.S. 37:2156.1 and 2156.2 which installs wire, conduit, or other wire raceways, its associated boxes or fittings, or installs fire alarm initiating and notification devices or intrusion alarm systems or closed circuit television systems or special locking systems in either commercial or residential property. This exception from licensure shall also apply to the employees of a firm or person exempted by this Subpart, but only as to work performed by them on behalf of the exempted employer.

(13) A mechanical contractor licensed by the State Licensing Board for Contractors and holding a statewide mechanical work license classification issued by that board or, where applicable, a plumber licensed by the State Plumbing Board who only certifies, inspects, installs, and services water supply piping supplying sprinkler systems, stand pipe, and hose station systems, or fire pumps.

(14) A mechanical contractor licensed by the State Licensing Board for Contractors and holding a statewide mechanical work license classification issued by that board or, where applicable, a plumber licensed by the State Plumbing Board who only installs piping within a fixed fire suppression system.

B. The provisions of this Subpart shall not apply to a conveyance device located within a one- or two-family dwelling as defined in R.S. 40:1573.

AMENDMENT NO. 14
On page 5, delete lines 25 through 29 in their entirety

AMENDMENT NO. 15
On page 6, delete lines 1 and 2 in their entirety and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, a person may obtain a technical endorsement as provided for in Paragraph (C)(11) of this Section and shall not be prohibited from actively working pursuant to the issuance of the license endorsement; however, such person shall obtain the certification as required in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection within one year from the date the technical endorsement was issued.

(3) All continuing education requirements developed and approved for persons who hold technical endorsements provided for in Paragraph (C)(11) of this Section shall be in accordance with R.S. 40:1664.11(G) or (H)."

AMENDMENT NO. 16
On page 6, line 22, delete "(B)"

AMENDMENT NO. 17
On page 8, delete lines 25 through 27 in their entirety

AMENDMENT NO. 18
On page 9, line 1, change "Section 3" to "Section 2"

AMENDMENT NO. 19
On page 9, line 4, change "Section 4" to "Section 3"

AMENDMENT NO. 20
On page 9, between lines 6 and 7, insert the following:

"Section 4. The inspection and certification requirements of R.S. 40:1664(B)(1) as amended and reenacted by Section 1 of this Act shall be applicable to the owner of a building containing a conveyance device effective July 1, 2024.

Section 5. R.S. 40:1664(B)(2)(b) and (F) as enacted by Section 1 of this Act shall become effective on July 1, 2024.

Section 6. R.S. 40:1664.(D)(2) as enacted by Section 1 of this Act shall cease to be effective on January 1, 2022."

AMENDMENT NO. 21
On page 9, line 7, change "Section 5" to "Section 7"

On motion of Rep. Simon, the amendments were adopted.

RULE 6.8(A) REPORT
OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON CIVIL LAW AND PROCEDURE ON SENATE BILL NO. 263
April 10, 2018

I. SUMMARY OF JOINT RESOLUTION

This report is for Senate Bill No. 263 of the 2018 Regular Session by Senator Erdey, proposing to amend Article VII, Section 14(B) of the Constitution.

SB 263 provides relative to the donation of public property and provides that the use of public equipment and personnel may be donated by one political subdivision to another, upon request by the other political subdivision and pursuant to a written agreement, for an activity or power the requesting political subdivision is authorized to exercise.

II. CONCLUSION

The proposed measure allowing for donation of the use of public equipment and personnel cannot be accomplished statutorily.

SB 263 proposes to create an exception to the present constitution prohibition against the loan, pledge, or donation of property owned by the state or its political subdivisions. Because exceptions to the general prohibition are established by the constitution, the proposed changes can only be accomplished through an amendment to the constitution.
III. OTHER PENDING MEASURES
