§3492. Definitions

For the purposes of this Chapter, unless the context clearly otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply and shall be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of any of the defined terms:

* * *

(14) "Transfer Terminal facilities" or "facilities" means a structure, a series of structures, or a facility constructed after July 1, 2008, developed pursuant to the authority development program on the lower end of the east bank of Southwest Pass in Plaquemines Parish on state owned property and designed to accommodate deep draft ~~container~~ vessels and their cargoes, including all intermodal structures, property, and equipment used for transportation, and facilities directly related thereto and necessary or useful to the operation thereof, whether landward, onshore, or seaward of the main structures or facilities themselves, including any facility which is part of a gulf transfer ~~container~~ terminal, as defined herein.

§3493. Jurisdiction; domicile

A.(1) The Louisiana International Deep Water Gulf Transfer Terminal Authority shall have only that exclusive jurisdiction as provided herein over a structure, a series of structures, or a facility constructed after July 1, 2008, at the lower end of the east bank at Southwest Pass in Plaquemines Parish on state owned property, described as follows to wit: beginning at a point having latitude 28.953797 degrees north and longitude 89.316072 degrees west; thence proceed to a point having latitude 28.941817 degrees north and 89.316192 degrees west; thence proceed to a point having latitude 28.918486 degrees north and 89.336992 degrees west; thence proceed to a point having latitude 28.918692 degrees north and longitude 89.349631 degrees west; thence proceed to a point having latitude 28.940650 degrees north and longitude 89.353161 degrees west; thence proceed to a point having latitude 28.953931 degrees north and 89.324425 degrees west; thence proceed to the point of beginning and designed to accommodate deep draft ~~container~~ vessels and their cargoes, including all intermodal structures, property, and equipment used for transportation, and facilities directly related thereto and necessary or useful to the operation thereof, whether landward, onshore, or seaward of the main structures or facilities themselves, including any facility which is part of a gulf transfer ~~container~~ terminal.

§3494. Board of commissioners; qualifications; term; vacancies; compensation

A. The authority shall be governed by a board of ~~fifteen~~ fourteen commissioners, consisting of the secretary of the Department of Economic Development and the secretary of the Department of Transportation and Development, the chairmen of the House and Senate committees on transportation, highways, and public works or their designees and ~~eleven~~ ten commissioners appointed by the governor to be chosen on the basis of their demonstrated experience in maritime or business leadership, or both, and their stature and ability to act effectively for the best interests of Louisiana. Such commissioners shall not be appointed or elected commissioners or board members of any other Louisiana port.

B. Commissioners shall be chosen as follows:

(11) ~~One member selected by the New Orleans Public Belt Railway, and appointed by the governor, who shall be a non-voting member.~~

(12) The commissioners appointed shall be appointed for terms of six years. A member shall serve until his successor is appointed unless removed as provided for in Paragraph (C)(1) of this Section. A commissioner may be reappointed, but no commissioner shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

* * *

§3499. Powers

* * *

F. The authority may lease or sublease lands leased from the state of Louisiana and is authorized to negotiate and enter into leases, subleases, contracts, or agreements with any person in order to facilitate the acquisition, construction, or operation of terminal facilities constructed or acquired after July 1, 2008, for unloading, temporarily storing, and transporting after unloading, ~~containerized~~ cargo in accordance with a license or licenses granted by the authority. However, the provisions of R.S. 33:4715.1, Chapter 10 of Title 41 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, and R.S. 38:2211 et seq., shall not apply to this Subsection.

* * *

On page 5, between lines 25 and 26, insert the following:

"§309. Allowing underage persons to play fantasy sports contests; penalties; revocation hearing

A. (1) No person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, or any agent or employee thereof, shall allow a person under the age of twenty-one to be a fantasy sports contest player.

(2) No person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, or any agent or employee thereof, shall allow a person to participate in a fantasy sports contest in a parish in which, at the election held pursuant to R.S. 27:303, a majority of the qualified electors in the parish voting on the proposition to authorize fantasy sports contests in the parish voted against the proposition.

B. (1) The person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter shall withhold all winnings from fantasy sports contest players who are determined to be under the age of twenty-one and from fantasy sports contest players participating in a fantasy sports contest in a parish in which, at the election held pursuant to R.S. 27:303, a majority of the qualified electors in the parish voting on the proposition to authorize fantasy sports contests in the parish voted against the proposition.

(2) The person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter shall each quarter report and remit to the division all winnings withheld from fantasy sports contest players pursuant to the provisions of this Section.

C. (1) Violations of Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section shall be penalized by the division as follows:

(a) If the licensee, his employee, or agent reasonably believed that the person was twenty-one years of age or older:

(i) For a first or second violation, a fine of one thousand dollars shall be imposed.

(ii) For a third or subsequent violation, a license revocation hearing shall be conducted at which time the board shall determine whether or not there are extenuating circumstances pursuant to which a license suspension or revocation should not be imposed. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board may revoke or suspend the license or, in lieu of the revocation or suspension of a license, the board may impose a civil penalty not to exceed fifty thousand dollars for each violation. Payment of the civil penalty shall be a requirement for the retention of the license held by the entity.

(b) If the licensee, his employee, or agent is shown to have known or reasonably believed he was allowing a person under the age of twenty-one years to be a fantasy sports contest player, or for allowing a person under the age of fifteen years to be a fantasy sports contest player regardless of what the licensee, his employee, or agent knew or reasonably believed about the age of that person:

(i) For a first or second violation, license revocation may be imposed.

(ii) For a first or second violation, a fine of one thousand dollars shall be imposed if the license is not revoked.

(iii) For a third or subsequent violation, a license revocation hearing shall be conducted at which time the board shall determine whether or not there are extenuating circumstances pursuant to which a license suspension or revocation should not be imposed. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board may revoke or suspend a license or, in lieu of the revocation or suspension of a license, the board may impose a civil penalty not to exceed fifty thousand dollars for each violation. Payment of the civil penalty shall be a requirement for the retention of the license held by the entity.

(2) Violations of Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section shall be penalized by the division as follows:

(a) For a first or second violation, license revocation may be imposed.

(b) For a first or second violation, a fine of one thousand dollars shall be imposed if the license is not revoked.

(c) For a third or subsequent violation, a license revocation hearing shall be conducted at which time the board shall determine whether or not there are extenuating circumstances pursuant to which a license suspension or revocation should not be imposed. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board may revoke or suspend a license or, in lieu of the revocation or suspension of a license, the board may impose a civil penalty not to exceed fifty thousand dollars for each violation. Payment of the civil penalty shall be a requirement for the retention of the license held by the entity.

D. (1) A licensee shall be provided notice of the charged violation and may concede the violation and accept the penalty or may deny the violation and demand a hearing be held, pursuant to R.S. 27:25, to make a determination regarding the charge.

(2) A violation shall have occurred only if the charged violation is conceded by the licensee to have occurred or is found to have occurred at a hearing held for that purpose.

(3) For the purposes of determining whether a second or subsequent violation has occurred, every violation shall have occurred on a separate occasion, at the same licensed location, and only violations that have occurred within a one-year period, regardless of when they were charged, conceded, or found to have occurred, shall be considered.

(4) For persons having more than one license issued pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, license revocation as provided in this Subsection, shall only apply to the license of the fantasy sports contest operator of the platform on which the violation occurred.

E. (1) It is unlawful for any person under twenty-one years of age to be a fantasy sports contest player.

(2) Whoever violates the provisions of this Subsection shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

(3) Any person apprehended while violating the provisions of this Subsection may be issued a citation by the apprehending law enforcement officer, which shall be paid in the same manner as provided for the offenders of local traffic violations."

On motion of Rep. Mack, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Abramson sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, delete lines 12 through 20 in their entirety and insert the following:

"§19. Use of force or violence in defense

A.(1) The use of force or violence upon the person of another is justifiable under either any of the following circumstances:

* * *

(c) When committed by a lawful person who is inside a religious building property, as is defined in R.S. 40:981.3, and when the use of force by the lawful person against the intruder meets all of the following circumstances:

(i) Is made for the purpose of preventing an intruder from committing a crime or forcible offense against the religious building property or against the lawful person or against another person present in the religious building property.

(ii) The lawful person reasonably believes that the use of force is necessary to prevent the entry or compel the intruder to leave the religious building property or to prevent the intruder from committing a crime against the permittee or other person inside the building.

* * *

B. For the purposes of this Section, there shall be a presumption that a person lawfully inside a dwelling, place of business, religious building property, or motor vehicle held a reasonable belief that the use of force or violence was necessary to prevent unlawful entry thereto, or to compel an unlawful intruder to leave the premises or motor vehicle, if both of the following occur:

* * *

E. (1) For purposes of this Section, the term "intruder" means a person who does any of the following:

- (a) Is engaged in a criminal act.
(b) Enters with the intent to commit a crime.
(c) Is unlawfully present.

(2) For purposes of Subparagraph (A)(1)(c) of this Section, the term "lawful person" shall apply to a person claiming the defense set forth in this Section when the force used against an intruder involves the use of a firearm and, at the time of the use of force against the intruder, the person was not prohibited from possessing a firearm under state or federal law."

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 2, delete lines 1 through 29 in their entirety and insert the following:

"§20. Justifiable homicide

A. A homicide is justifiable:

* * *

(5) When committed by a lawful person who is inside a religious building property, as is defined in R.S. 40:981.3, and when the use of force by the lawful person against the intruder meets all of the following circumstances:

(i) Is made for the purpose of preventing an intruder from committing a crime or forcible offense against the religious building property or against the permittee or against another person present in the religious building property.

(ii) The permittee reasonably believes that the use of force is necessary to prevent the entry or compel the intruder to leave the religious building property or to prevent the intruder from committing a crime against the permittee or other person inside the building.

B. For the purposes of this Section, there shall be a presumption that a person lawfully inside a dwelling, place of business, or motor vehicle held a reasonable belief that the use of deadly force was necessary to prevent unlawful entry thereto, or to compel an unlawful intruder to leave the dwelling, religious building property, place of business, or motor vehicle when the conflict began, if both of the following occur:

(1) The person against whom deadly force was used was in the process of unlawfully and forcibly entering or had unlawfully and forcibly entered the dwelling, place of business, religious building property, or motor vehicle.

* * *

E.(1) For purposes of this Section, the term "intruder" means a person who does any of the following:

- (a) Is engaged in a criminal act.
(b) Enters with the intent to commit a crime.
(c) Is unlawfully present.

(2) For purposes of Subparagraph (A)(1)(c) of this Section the term "lawful person" shall apply to a person claiming the defense set forth in this Section when the force used against an intruder involves the use of a firearm and, at the time of the use of force against the intruder, the person was not prohibited from possessing a firearm under state or federal law."
