If the total amount of credits applied for in any fiscal year exceeds the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for that fiscal year, the excess shall be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent fiscal year. If the total amount of credits granted in any fiscal year is less than the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for that fiscal year, any residual amount shall carry forward for use in the subsequent year and may be granted in addition to the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for that year. The Department of Revenue and the Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism shall make reasonable efforts to post a listing of estimated credit amounts remaining under the annual cap on their websites.

(ii) Except as otherwise provided in this Item, no more than fifty percent of the annual credit cap shall be reserved for projects within a single arts council region, as those regions are defined by the office of cultural development, division of the arts. Notwithstanding the fifty percent per arts council region limitation, if the entire annual credit cap has not been granted before May 1 in any fiscal year, the remainder of the amount may be granted to projects within any arts council region.

(f) The amount of the tax credit is equal to ten or twenty percent of the eligible costs and expenses of the rehabilitation if the actual eligible costs and expenses incurred at the historic structure are between seventy-five percent and one hundred twenty-five percent of the estimated eligible costs and expenses as set forth in the Part 2-Proposed Work Description for the historic structure. If the actual eligible costs and expenses exceed one hundred twenty-five percent of the estimated eligible costs and expenses as set forth in the Part 2-Proposed Work Description for the historic structure, the tax credit shall be allowed for one hundred twenty-five percent of the estimated eligible costs and expenses as set forth in the Part 2-Proposed Work Description as opposed to the actual eligible costs and expenses incurred in rehabilitating the historic structure. If the actual eligible costs and expenses are below seventy-five percent of the estimated eligible costs and expenses as set forth in the Part 2-Proposed Work Description for the historic structure, the tax credit shall not be allowed.

AMENDMENT NO. 1

In Senate Committee Amendment No. 8 proposed by the Senate Committee on Revenue and Fiscal Affairs and adopted by the Senate on June 19, 2020, on page 2, between lines 8 and 9, insert:

"(iii) The Department of Revenue fiscal year credit claim cap for Louisiana Historic Rehabilitation Commercial Tax Credit Application Part 3 - Request for Project Certification submitted on or after July 1, 2020, shall be as follows:

(aa) For fiscal year 2020-2021, claims against state income and corporation franchise tax allowed on returns for tax credits shall be limited to an aggregate total of seventy-five million dollars. If less than the fiscal year credit claim cap is claimed in a fiscal year, the remaining amount, plus any amounts remaining from previous fiscal years, shall be added to fiscal year credit claim cap of subsequent fiscal years until that amount of tax credits are claimed.

(bb) For fiscal year 2021-2022, claims against state income and corporation franchise tax allowed on returns for tax credits shall be limited to an aggregate total of the greater of eighty-five million dollars or the amount appropriated pursuant to this Subparagraph each fiscal year. If less than the fiscal year credit claim cap is claimed in a fiscal year, the remaining amount, plus any amounts remaining from previous fiscal years, shall be added to fiscal year credit claim cap of subsequent fiscal years until that amount of tax credits are claimed.

(cc) For fiscal year 2022-2023, claims against state income and corporation franchise tax allowed on returns for tax credits shall be limited to an aggregate total of the greater of one hundred million dollars or the amount appropriated pursuant to this Subparagraph each fiscal year. If less than the fiscal year credit claim cap is claimed in a fiscal year, the remaining amount, plus any amounts remaining from previous fiscal years, shall be added to fiscal year credit claim cap of subsequent fiscal years until that amount of tax credits are claimed.

(dd) For fiscal years on and after 2023-2024, there shall be no credit claim cap.

(ee) Claims for tax credits to the Department of Revenue shall be allowed on a first-come, first-served basis. Any taxpayer whose claim for tax credits is disallowed because the fiscal year cap has been reached may use the tax credits against state income or corporation franchise tax due on an original return filed in the next fiscal year, and his claim shall have priority over other claims filed after the date of his original claim.

(ff) If a claim against state income or corporation franchise tax for a tax credit is disallowed because the fiscal year credit claim cap has been reached, the Department of Revenue may provide for an abatement of interest pursuant to R.S. 47:1601 and a waiver of delinquent payment penalties pursuant to R.S. 47:1603."
