"Section 2. R.S. 29:768 is hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 29:768.1 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§768. Termination of declaration of public health emergency

A. The state of public health emergency shall continue until the governor finds that the threat of danger has passed or the disaster or emergency has been dealt with addressed to the extent that the emergency conditions no longer exist and terminates the state of public health emergency by executive order or proclamation, but no state of public health emergency may continue for longer than thirty days unless renewed by the governor authorized by the legislature in accordance with R.S. 29:768.1.

B.(1) The legislature, in consultation with the public health authority, by a petition signed by a majority of the surviving members of each house, may terminate a state of public health emergency at any time. This petition terminating the public health emergency may establish a period during which no other declaration of public health emergency may be issued. The petition shall issue an executive order or proclamation ending the state of public health emergency. The House of Representatives or the Senate may terminate a state of public health emergency at any time by a petition signed by the majority of its surviving members. The petition may establish and confine the applicability of a period during which no other declaration of a public health emergency may be issued and shall include a date and time on which the state of public health emergency terminates. The petition shall be submitted to the clerical officer of the respective house. Upon receipt of a valid petition, the clerical officer shall transmit copies of the signed petition to the other house, the governor, and the secretary of state. The clerical officer shall give notice to the public of the termination of the state of public health emergency by publishing the petition on the joint legislative website and in the official journal of the state. No additional action is required to effectuate the termination of the state of public health emergency.

(2) Upon receipt of the notice of the termination of the state of public health emergency, the governor may make a request to the legislature pursuant to R.S. 29:768.1 to renew the state of public health emergency.

§768.1. Renewal of declaration of public health emergency

A. Any request by the governor to renew a public health emergency shall clearly delineate each item. Each item shall require approval by a majority of the surviving members of each house of the legislature.

B.(1) In order to obtain the written consent of a majority of the surviving members of each house of the legislature, the clerical officer shall prepare and transmit a ballot to each member of the legislature as provided in this subsection.

(2) The ballots shall be uniform.

(3) Each item shall be placed separately on the ballot and require each member to cast his vote separately for or against each item.

(4) Each ballot shall include a place for the member to whom the ballot has been transmitted to provide his name and sign the ballot after casting his vote.

(5) The clerical officers of the legislature shall transmit the ballots to all of the members on the same day. The clerical officers of the legislature shall certify this date, which is referred to in this Subsection as the “transmittal date”.

(6) The clerical officers of the legislature shall provide a notice to each member of the legislature on the transmittal date. The notice shall include all of the following:

(a) The number of items on the ballot.

(b) The vote required for passage of the items on the ballot.

(c) The date and time by which the ballot shall be returned to the clerical officer of the member’s house in order to be valid.

(d) Such other pertinent information as the clerk and the secretary shall determine.

(7)(a) The member shall cast his vote for each item on the ballot, provide his name in the appropriate place on the ballot, sign the ballot, and return the voted ballot to the clerical officer of his house.

(b)(i) The clerical officers of the legislature shall initiate and oversee the design and implementation of a system to allow each member to electronically vote and return his ballot as provided in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph. The system shall be accurate and secure. The clerical officers of the legislature shall certify that the system meets the requirements of this Subparagraph prior to implementation.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (4) of this Subsection and Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph, if a member votes using a system certified as provided in Item (1) of this Subparagraph, the member shall not be required to sign his ballot.

(8)(a) The clerical officers of the legislature shall provide notice to each member from whom the clerk or the secretary, as applicable, receives a voted ballot confirming that the ballot has been received.

(b) On the fifth day after the transmittal date, the clerical officers of the legislature shall provide a notice to each member whose voted ballot has not been received indicating that the member’s voted ballot has not been received and informing the member of the deadline for returning the ballot.

C.(1) If the legislature is not in session on the transmittal date, the ballots shall be returned to the clerical officers of the legislature no later than five o’clock p.m. on the seventh day after the transmittal date.

(2) When ballots are transmitted to the members of the legislature in session, they shall be returned to the clerical officers of the legislature no later than five o’clock p.m. on the fifth day after the transmittal date.

(3) No ballot received by the clerical officers of the legislature after the deadline provided in Paragraph (1) or (2) of this Subsection shall be valid or counted, but the day and time received shall be recorded for each ballot received after such time, and the ballot shall be marked “Invalid”. However, prior to the deadline for returning a ballot, a member may withdraw his ballot or change his vote upon his written request.

(4) Whenever the clerical officers of the legislature are to provide notice to a member of the legislature pursuant to this Section, the notice shall be transmitted using the most efficient communication medium available to the clerical officer. Any such communication medium may include e-mail communications.

D.(1) On the next business day after the deadline for returning ballots as provided in Paragraph (B)(1) or (2) of this Section, the clerical officers of the legislature shall tabulate the vote in roll call order for each house of the legislature. The clerical officers of the legislature shall hold such ballots under seal and shall not disclose the contents to any person until the day when such ballots are tabulated. No ballot shall be deemed spoiled if inadvertently disclosed in processing.

(2) The tabulation shall indicate by name those members who voted in favor of each item, those who voted against each item, those who did not vote on one or more items, those who did not return the ballot by the due date and time, and those whose ballots were invalid because not signed by the member. The clerical officers of the legislature shall sign the tabulation sheet or sheets and cause a summary thereof to be transmitted to the governor.
E. Upon receipt of the tabulation summary from the clerical officers of the legislature the governor may renew the state of public health emergency to include any item approved by the legislature for a period up to thirty days.

Section 3. The provisions of this Act shall be given prospective and retroactive application.

AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 7, at the beginning on line 4, change "Section 2." to "Section 4."

On motion of Rep. Ivey, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Beaullieu moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.

AMENDMENT NO. 8
On page 5, at the end of line 10, insert the following:

"The termination shall be approved by a concurrent resolution of the legislature in session. The termination may be completed by mail ballot or petition if the legislature is not in session. If a period of time is established during which no other declaration may be issued, it shall not exceed thirty days. Either form of the petition shall be offered by the chairman of the Legislative Emergency Declaration Review Committee after a hearing pursuant to this Subsection C of this Section, wherein the committee upon majority vote recommends to terminate the emergency declaration. The procedure, transmittal, and receipt of mail ballots shall be the same as La. R.S. 39:461.1."

AMENDMENT NO. 9
On page 5, line 26, after "renewal," insert the following:

"(5) Immediately upon receipt of the notification from the governor, the clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate shall transmit the ballot to each surviving member of the legislature as follows:

(a) The ballots shall be uniform.
(b) Each ballot shall contain a question phrased to allow each member to cast his vote for or against the renewal of the state of disaster or emergency.
(c) Each ballot shall include a place for the member to whom the ballot has been transmitted to provide his name and validate his ballot after casting his vote.
(d) The clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate shall transmit the ballots to all of the surviving members on the same day. The clerk and the secretary shall certify this date, which is referred to in this Subsection as the "transmittal date."
(e) The clerk and the secretary shall provide a notice to each member of the legislature on the transmittal date. The notice shall include all of the following:
(i) The notification from the governor.
(ii) The date and time by which the ballot shall be returned to the clerical officer of the member's house in order to be valid.
(iii) Such other pertinent information as the clerk and the secretary shall determine.
(f) The member shall cast his vote, provide his name in the appropriate place on the ballot, and return the voted ballot to the clerical officer of his house.
(g) The clerk and the secretary shall provide notice to each member from whom the clerk or the secretary, as applicable, receives a voted ballot confirming that the ballot has been received;
(h) On the fourth day after the transmittal date, the clerk and the secretary shall provide a notice to each member whose voted ballot has not been received indicating that the member's voted ballot has not been received and informing the member of the deadline for returning the ballot;
(i) Ballots shall be returned to the clerk and the secretary no later than five o'clock p.m. on the fifth day after the transmittal date;
(j) No ballot received by the clerk and the secretary after the deadline provided in Subparagraph (i) of this Paragraph shall be valid or counted, but the day and time received shall be recorded for each ballot received after such time, and the ballot shall be marked "invalid."
However, prior to the deadline for returning a ballot, a member may withdraw his ballot or change his vote upon his written request.
(k)(i) Whenever the clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate are to transmit a ballot or notice to a member of the legislature pursuant to this Paragraph, the ballot or notice shall be transmitted using the most efficient medium available to the clerk or the secretary under the circumstances and may include but is not limited to electronic mail or SMS communications. Any such medium shall provide for notice of receipt and the records of all such transmittals and notices shall be maintained and preserved for a least six months following the tabulation.
(ii) The clerk and the secretary shall devise a method for a member to validate his ballot which may include signature, personal identification number, or other secure method.
(l)(i) On the next business day after the deadline for returning ballots as provided in Subparagraph (i) of this Paragraph, the clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate shall tabulate the vote in roll call order for each house of the legislature. The clerk and the secretary shall hold such ballots under seal and shall not disclose the contents to any person until the day when such ballots are tabulated. No ballot shall be deemed spoiled if inadvertently disclosed in processing.

(ii) The tabulation shall indicate by name those members who voted for the renewal, those who voted against the renewal, those returned a valid ballot but who did not vote, those who did not return the ballot by the due date and time, and those whose ballots were invalid because not validated by the member. The clerk and the secretary shall sign the tabulation sheet or sheets and cause a summary thereof to be transmitted to each member of the legislature and the governor. Further, the clerk and the secretary shall disseminate the tabulation promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and promptly file it with the Governor's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness and with the secretary of state.

AMENDMENT NO. 4
On page 5, line 3, change "Subsection C" to "Subsections C and D"

AMENDMENT NO. 5
On page 5, line 19, change "The" to "Subject to the provisions of Subsection D of this Section, the"

AMENDMENT NO. 6
On page 5, line 24, between "suspension." and "The" insert the following:

"He shall also submit the notification to the clerk of the House of Representatives and to the secretary of the Senate to present the question of approval of the renewal to the surviving members of each house of the legislature in the manner provided in Subsection D of this Section.

AMENDMENT NO. 7
On page 6, between lines 5 and 6, insert the following:

"(D)(1) Immediately upon receipt of the notification from the governor as provided in Subsection C of this Section, the clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the senate shall jointly prepare and transmit a ballot to each surviving member of the legislature as follows:

(a) The ballots shall be uniform.

(b) Each ballot shall contain a question phrased to allow each member to cast his vote for or against the renewal of the state of public health emergency.

(c) Each ballot shall include a place for the member to whom the ballot has been transmitted to provide his name and validate his ballot after casting his vote.

(2) The clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate shall transmit the ballots to all of the surviving members on the same day. The clerk and the secretary shall certify this date, which is referred to in this Subsection as the "transmittal date."

(3) The clerk and the secretary shall provide a notice to each member of the legislature on the transmittal date. The notice shall include all of the following:

(a) The notification from the governor.

(b) The date and time by which the ballot shall be returned to the clerical officer of the member's house in order to be valid.

(c) Such other pertinent information as the clerk and the secretary shall determine.

(4) The member shall cast his vote, provide his name in the appropriate place on the ballot, and return the voted ballot to the clerical officer of his house.

(5) The clerk and the secretary shall provide notice to each member from whom the clerk or the secretary, as applicable, receives a voted ballot confirming that the ballot has been received.

(6) On the fourth day after the transmittal date, the clerk and the secretary shall provide a notice to each member whose voted ballot has not been received indicating that the member's voted ballot has not been received and informing the member of the deadline for returning the ballot.

(7) Ballots shall be returned to the clerk and the secretary no later than five o'clock p.m. on the fifth day after the transmittal date.

(8) No ballot received by the clerk and the secretary after the deadline provided in Paragraph (7) of this Subsection shall be valid or counted, but the day and time received shall be recorded for each ballot received after such time, and the ballot shall be marked 'invalid'. However, prior to the deadline for returning a ballot, a member may withdraw his ballot or change his vote upon his written request.

(9)(a) Whenever the clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate are to transmit a ballot or notice to a member of the legislature pursuant to this Paragraph, the ballot or notice shall be transmitted using the most efficient medium available to the clerk or the secretary under the circumstances and may include but is not limited to electronic mail or SMS communications. Any such medium shall provide for notice of receipt and the records of all such transmittals and notices shall be maintained and preserved for at least six months following the tabulation.

(b) The clerk and the secretary shall devise a method for a member to validate his ballot which may include signature, personal identification number, or other secure method.

(10)(a) On the next business day after the deadline for returning ballots as provided in Paragraph (7) of this Subsection the clerk of the House of Representatives and the secretary of the Senate shall tabulate the vote in roll call order for each house of the legislature. The clerk and the secretary shall hold such ballots under seal and shall not disclose the contents to any person until the day when such ballots are tabulated. No ballot shall be deemed spoiled if inadvertently disclosed in processing.

(b) The tabulation shall indicate by name those members who voted to approve the renewal, those who voted against the renewal, those returned a valid ballot but who did not vote, those who did not return the ballot by the due date and time, and those whose ballots were invalid because not validated by the member. The clerk and the secretary shall sign the tabulation sheet or sheets and cause a summary thereof to be transmitted to each member of the legislature and the governor. Further, the clerk and the secretary shall disseminate the tabulation promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and promptly file it with the Governor's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness, with the secretary of state, and with the Louisiana Department of Health, office of public health.

(11)(a) If a majority of the surviving members of each house of the legislature vote to approve the renewal then the governor may proceed with issuing the order or proclamation to renew the state of public health emergency.

(b) If a majority of the surviving members of each house of the legislature do not approve the renewal, then the state of public health emergency is deemed terminated as of the date and time the tabulation is transmitted to the governor and the governor shall not issue another order or proclamation to renew that state of public health emergency.
