AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 9, between lines 11 and 12 insert the following:

"F. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, nothing in this Section shall prohibit the marketplace facilitator and the marketplace seller from contractually agreeing to have the marketplace seller and its affiliates collect and remit all applicable taxes and fees if the marketplace seller meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The marketplace seller has annual United States gross sales over one billion dollars, including the gross sales of any affiliates, and in the case of franchised entities, including the combined sales of all franchisees of a single franchisor.

(2) The marketplace seller, or its affiliates, is a service supplier as defined by R.S. 33:9109(B)(7) or is a seller as defined by R.S. 33:9109.1(B)(8).

(3) The marketplace seller provides evidence to the marketplace facilitator that it is registered as a dealer defined by R.S. 47:301(4) with the state and local collectors as defined by R.S. 47:301(2).

(4) The marketplace seller notifies the commission in a manner prescribed by the commission that the marketplace seller and its affiliates will collect and remit all applicable taxes and fees on its sales through the marketplace and is liable for failure to collect or remit applicable taxes and fees on its sales."

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, between lines 16 and 17 insert the following:

"Section 2. R.S. 20:34 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§34. Payments, grants, and loans made by the United States, any state, or any federal or state agency resulting from the occurrence of an extraordinary emergency event

A. It is the public policy of the state of Louisiana that all payments, grants, or loans made by the United States, any state, or any federal or state agency as a result of a national or statewide extraordinary emergency event shall be used by the payee, grantee, or borrower for the purposes intended by the governmental authority which pays, grants, or lends the funds.

B. An "extraordinary emergency event" as used in this Section, means a presidentially or gubernatorially declared natural disaster, state of emergency, or public health emergency affecting Louisiana.

C. Any governmental payments, grants, or loans received as a result of an extraordinary emergency event by any natural or juridical person who is a citizen of the United States and domiciled in this state:

(1) After receipt by the person, are exempt from seizure, sale, attachment, or restraint under any writ, mandate, or order, except for the payment of alimony and child support as may be otherwise allowed by law and except to the extent of the balance due on debt secured by a security interest granted in such governmental grants, payments, or loans that the person granted after the extraordinary emergency event.

(2) Prior to the extraordinary emergency event may not be assigned by such person designating such payments, grants, or loans as security for the payment of any debt existing prior to the extraordinary emergency event for which the governmental payment, grant, or loan was made.

D.(1) After receipt by the person, all governmental grant funds, payments, or loan proceeds shall continue to be exempt from seizure and shall retain their exempt status as provided in Paragraph C, provided that the grant funds, payments, or loan proceeds are held separately in an account used exclusively for this purpose and expressly identified as an account opened under this Section.

(2) The person asserting the exemption created by this Section bears the burden of preventing or limiting a financial institution's compliance with or response to a seizure, sale, attachment, garnishment, or restraint subject to this Section by seeking an appropriate remedy, including a restraining order, injunction, protective order, or other remedy, to prevent or suspend the financial institution's response to a claim against the person.

E. The provisions of this Section are subject to and shall not supercede laws, regulations, rules, government-issued guidance or interpretations, or other specific provisions, governing a particular payment, grant, or loan program and pursuant to which the natural or juridical person received funds."

On motion of Rep. Gregory Miller, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Gary Carter moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
