WHEREAS, the Legislature of Louisiana entered into a bipartisan justice reinvestment process, as advanced by the Justice Reinvestment Initiative, that resulted in legislation designed to safely reduce Louisiana prison population and reinvest savings back into programs that promote successful transition back to communities; and

WHEREAS, the Louisiana system which utilizes both state prisons and local jails to house persons committed to the custody of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections presents unique and complex challenges regarding housing conditions and the provision of programming; and

WHEREAS, approximately twelve thousand of the persons committed to the custody of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections to serve judicially ordered sentences are housed in local jails across the state; and

WHEREAS, despite these challenges, Louisiana has made significant strides in the reduction of the prison population and the expansion of available programming and resources in local jails through the creation of regional reentry centers and other local level partnerships; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Public Safety and Corrections and the Louisiana Sheriffs' Association seek to continue to improve housing conditions in local jails through the continued expansion of programming contingent upon the availability of funding, to revise and modify the Basic Jail Guidelines, and ensure the uniform enforcement thereof; and

WHEREAS, the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin is one of the preeminent public affairs schools in the United States and has comprehensively studied housing conditions in prisons and jails nationwide.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby urge and request the Department of Public Safety and Corrections and the Louisiana Sheriffs' Association, in conjunction with the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin, to study and review the Department of Public Safety and Corrections Basic Jail Guidelines, including methods of evaluation and enforcement, mandatory and non-mandatory standards of confinement as required by the American Correctional Association as applicable to local jails, and the programming and resource needs of local jails, to recommend modifications to the Basic Jail Guidelines and existing methods of enforcement and compliance and the expansion of programming resources in local jails, and to identify the appropriate funding levels necessary to carry out such recommendations in order to further improve the housing conditions.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, the Louisiana Sheriffs' Association, in conjunction with the Lyndon B.
