(d) The patient respondent is likely to benefit from involuntary outpatient treatment.

(2) The patient respondent is, as a result of his mental illness, likely to become dangerous to self or others in the future.

(3) The patient respondent has a history of lack of compliance with treatment for mental illness, that has resulted in either of the following:

(a) At least twice within the last thirty-six months, the lack of compliance with treatment for mental illness has resulted in an emergency certificate for hospitalization, or receipt of services in a forensic or other mental health unit of a correctional facility or a local correctional facility, not including any period during which the person was hospitalized or incarcerated immediately preceding the filing of the petition.

(b) One or more acts of serious violent behavior toward self or others or threats of, or attempts of, serious physical harm to self or others within the last thirty-six months as a result of mental illness, not including any period during which the person was hospitalized or incarcerated immediately preceding the filing of the petition.

(c) The patient respondent has, as a result of his mental illness, become dangerous to self or others in the past, or is likely to become dangerous to self or others within the next thirty days.

(d) The patient respondent is likely to benefit from involuntary outpatient treatment.

(3) It is likely that the patient respondent will benefit from involuntary outpatient treatment.

B. (1) If the patient respondent has executed an advance directive as defined in R.S. 28:221, any directions included in the directive shall be considered by the court in determining the written treatment plan.

(2) Nothing herein in this Section shall preclude a person with an advance directive from being subject to a petition pursuant to this Part."
outpatient treatment for the patient respondent, and he is willing and able to testify at the hearing on the petition.

(2) No more than ten days prior to the filing of the petition, such physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist, or his or her designee, has made appropriate attempts to elicit attendance failed, the court may show that the patient respondent is a proper subject for outpatient treatment.

Louisiana Code of Evidence. Witnesses and evidence tending to the same type. The court shall admit evidence according to the shall take precedence over all other matters, except pending cases of medical psychologist.

(3) The court-appointed physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist who testifies pursuant to Subsection C of this Section shall be sealed and available only to the parties to the provisions of this Title and the disposition of those cases. Each court

(2) If the court determines that probable cause exists, the court shall appoint a physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist to examine the respondent and to provide a written Physician's Report to Court and testify at the hearing. The Physician's Report to Court shall be completed on the form provided by the office of behavioral health of the Louisiana Department of Health and provided to the court, the respondent's counsel, and the petitioner's counsel at least three days before the hearing.

(3) The Physician's Report to Court shall set forth specifically the objective factors leading to the conclusion that the respondent has a mental illness that renders him unlikely to voluntarily participate in the recommended treatment and, in view of the treatment history and current behavior of the respondent, he is in need of involuntary outpatient treatment to prevent a relapse or deterioration which would be likely to result in him becoming dangerous to self or others or gravely disabled as defined in R.S. 28:2. The report shall also include recommendations for a treatment plan.

(4) The court-appointed physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or medical psychologist may be the respondent's treating physician, treating psychiatric nurse practitioner, or treating medical psychologist.

(2) In addition to those persons entitled to notice pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, if the respondent is interdicted, notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition shall also be served upon the curator for the interdict and the attorney who represented the interdict in the interdict proceedings.

B. (1) As soon as is practical after the filing of the petition, the court shall review the petition and supporting documents and determine whether there exists probable cause to believe that the respondent is suffering from mental illness which renders him unlikely to voluntarily participate in the recommended treatment and, in view of the treatment history and current behavior of the respondent, he is in need of involuntary outpatient treatment to prevent a relapse or deterioration which would be likely to result in him becoming dangerous to self or others or gravely disabled as defined in R.S. 28:2.

(2) If the court determines that probable cause exists, the court shall order the respondent into custody and transport him to a psychiatrist's office, behavioral health center, hospital, or emergency receiving center for examination. Retention of the patient respondent in accordance with the court order shall not exceed twenty-four hours. The examination of the patient may be performed by the physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist whose affidavit or Physician's Report to Court accompanied the petition pursuant to R.S. 28:68(B), if he is privileged or otherwise authorized by the hospital or emergency receiving center. If no such examination is performed by the examining physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist, he shall be authorized to consult with the respondent's treating physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist whose affidavit or Physician's Report to Court accompanied the petition regarding the issues of whether the allegations in the petition are true and whether the patient meets the criteria for involuntary outpatient treatment.

(3) The court shall review the petition and supporting documents and determine whether there exists probable cause to believe that the respondent is suffering from mental illness which renders him unlikely to voluntarily participate in the recommended treatment and, in view of the treatment history and current behavior of the respondent, he is in need of involuntary outpatient treatment to prevent a relapse or deterioration which would be likely to result in him becoming dangerous to self or others or gravely disabled as defined in R.S. 28:2. The report shall also include recommendations for a treatment plan.

(4) The court-appointed physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or medical psychologist may be the respondent's treating physician, treating psychiatric nurse practitioner, or treating medical psychologist.

C. The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition which shall take precedence over all other matters, except pending cases of the same type. The court shall admit evidence according to the Louisiana Code of Evidence. Witnesses and evidence tending to show that the patient respondent is a proper subject for outpatient placement shall be presented first. If the respondent does not appear at the hearing, and service of process was proper and appropriate attempts to elicit attendance failed, the court may conduct the hearing in the absence of the patient respondent, but the court shall state the factual basis for conducting the hearing without the patient respondent.

D. The court shall not order involuntary outpatient treatment unless an examining physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist, who has personally examined the patient within the time period commencing ten days before the filing of the petition respondent, testifies at the hearing, in person or via electronic means, with consent of all the parties, regarding the categories of involuntary outpatient treatment recommended. The rationale for each category, facts which establish that such treatment is the least restrictive alternative, and, if recommended, the beneficial and detrimental physical and mental effects of medication; and whether such medication should be self-administered or administered by an authorized professional.

E. If the patient respondent has refused to be examined by a the court-ordered physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist, the court may order the subject to undergo an examination by a physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist appointed by the court. If the patient refuses to undergo the court-ordered examination and the court finds reasonable cause to believe that the allegations in the petition are true, the court may order the sheriff's department to take the respondent into custody and transport him to a psychiatrist's office, behavioral health center, hospital, or emergency receiving center for examination. Retention of the patient respondent in accordance with the court order shall not exceed twenty-four hours. The examination of the patient may be performed by the physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist whose affidavit or Physician's Report to Court accompanied the petition pursuant to R.S. 28:68(B), if he is privileged or otherwise authorized by the hospital or emergency receiving center. If no such examination is performed by the examining physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist, he shall be authorized to consult with the respondent's treating physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist whose affidavit or Physician's Report to Court accompanied the petition regarding the issues of whether the allegations in the petition are true and whether the patient meets the criteria for involuntary outpatient treatment.

F. A physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist who testifies pursuant to Subsection D of this Section shall state the facts which support the allegation that the patient respondent meets each of the criteria for involuntary outpatient treatment, the treatment is the least restrictive alternative, the recommended involuntary outpatient treatment, and the rationale. If the recommended involuntary outpatient treatment includes medication, the testimony of the physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or medical psychologist shall describe the types or classes of medication which should be authorized, the beneficial and detrimental physical and mental effects of such medication, and whether the medication should be self-administered or administered by authorized personnel.

G. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to present evidence, to call witnesses on his behalf, and to cross-examine adverse witnesses.

H. Each court shall keep a record of cases relating to persons who have a mental illness coming before the court pursuant to the provisions of this Title and the disposition of those cases. Each court shall also keep on file the original petition and certificates of physicians required by this Section, or a microfilm duplicate of such records. All records maintained in courts pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be sealed and available only to the parties to the case, unless a court, after a hearing held with notice to the respondent, determines such records should be disclosed to a petitioner for cause shown. Any hearing conducted in accordance with this Subsection shall be closed to the public.
§70. Written treatment plan for involuntary outpatient treatment

A. The court shall not order involuntary outpatient treatment unless an examining physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist develops and provides to the court a proposed written treatment plan. The written treatment plan shall be developed in consultation with the respondent and, upon his request, an individual significant to him and concerned with his welfare and deemed appropriate by the director as well as the patient and upon his request, an individual significant to him and concerned with his welfare. The written treatment plan shall include the appropriate services to provide care coordination. The written treatment plan shall also include appropriate categories of services, as set forth in Subsection D of this Section, which the patient respondent is to receive, and the court may not order treatment that exceeds two years.

B. If the written treatment plan includes substance-related or addictive disorder counseling and treatment, it may include a provision requiring testing for either alcohol or illegal substances provided the clinical basis for recommending such plan provides sufficient facts for the court to find all of the following:

1. The patient respondent has a history of a substance-related or addictive disorder that is clinically related to the mental illness.

E. The director or his designee of the local governing entity shall be certified to the court that the services ordered in the plan are available and can be reasonably accessed by the patient respondent.

F. (1) The written treatment plan is subject to reviews before the court with the patient respondent and at least one representative of the treatment team. The initial frequency shall be stipulated in the treatment plan and modified with the court’s approval.

(2) The court-order required court-ordered blood or laboratory testing shall be subject to review after six months by the physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist who developed the written treatment plan or who is designated by the director, and the blood or laboratory testing may be terminated without further action of the court.

§71. Disposition

A. If the court determines that the patient respondent does not meet the criteria for involuntary outpatient treatment, the court shall dismiss the petition.

B. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the patient respondent meets the criteria for involuntary outpatient treatment, and no less restrictive less-restrictive alternative is feasible, the court shall order that the patient respondent receive involuntary outpatient treatment for an initial period not to exceed one year. The court shall state reasons why the proposed treatment plan is the least restrictive treatment appropriate and feasible for the patient respondent. The order shall state the categories of involuntary outpatient treatment as set forth in R.S. 28:70, which the patient respondent is to receive, and the court may not order treatment that has not been recommended by the physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist in consultation with the treatment team and included in the written treatment plan. The court shall not order an outpatient commitment unless the director or his designee certifies it is certified to the court that the services are available.

C. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the patient respondent meets the criteria for involuntary outpatient treatment, and a written proposed treatment plan has not been approved, the court shall order the director of the local governing entity to provide a plan and testimony within five days of the date of the order.

D. The court may order the patient respondent to self-administer psychotropic drugs or order the administration of such drugs by authorized personnel as part of an involuntary outpatient treatment program. The order shall specify the type of psychotropic drugs and it shall be effective for the duration of such involuntary outpatient treatment.

E. If the petitioner is affiliated with a hospital that operates an involuntary outpatient treatment program that is willing to treat the patient respondent, the court order shall indicate whether the hospital provides all available categories of involuntary outpatient treatment services. If the hospital does not have such a program or if the patient is discharged to a different local governing entity, or if the director of the local governing entity has filed the petition and certified services are available, the court order shall require the appropriate director to provide all available categories of involuntary outpatient treatment services.

F. The treatment provider shall apply for court approval prior to instituting a proposed material change in the involuntary outpatient treatment order unless such change is contemplated in the order. For purposes of this Subsection, a material change shall mean an addition or deletion of a category of involuntary outpatient treatment service, or any deviation without the consent of the patient respondent from the terms of an existing order relating to the administration of psychotropic drugs, or a change of residence from one local governing entity to another. A material change shall not mean a change in the dosage or the specific psychotropic drug within the type ordered by the court. Any application for court approval shall be served upon all persons required to be served with notice of a petition for an order authorizing involuntary outpatient treatment. Either party may move for a hearing on the application. If a motion is not filed within five days from the date the application is filed, the court shall grant the application.

G. Failure to comply with an order of assisted outpatient treatment shall not be grounds, in and of itself, for involuntary civil commitment or a finding of contempt of court.

§72. Application for additional periods of treatment

A. The court order for outpatient treatment shall expire at the end of the specified period unless a petition for an extension has been filed. If any person or entity authorized within R.S. 28:67 determines that a patient respondent requires further involuntary outpatient treatment, he shall file a petition for continued treatment prior to the expiration of the involuntary outpatient treatment ordered by the court. If a patient respondent has been ordered to receive outpatient treatment for four consecutive six-month to one-year periods, the period of any subsequent order may exceed one year but shall not exceed two years.

§73. Application to stay, vacate, or modify

In addition to any right or remedy available by law, the patient respondent may apply to the court to stay, vacate, or modify the order based on a change in circumstances and he shall notify the director of the local governing entity or designee of his application.

§75. Failure to comply with involuntary outpatient treatment
A. If either party alleges noncompliance under the written treatment plan, a judicial review can be scheduled and all persons listed in R.S. 28:69(A) are to receive notice. When a physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist determines the patient has failed to comply with the ordered treatment, efforts were made to solicit compliance by the local governing entity, case manager, or assertive community treatment provider shall make reasonable efforts to solicit the compliance of the respondent.

B. When a physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist determines the patient has failed to comply with the ordered treatment, efforts were made to solicit compliance by the local governing entity, case manager, or assertive community treatment provider, and the patient may be in need of involuntary admission to a treatment facility. If either party alleges noncompliance despite the efforts referred to in Subsection A of this Section, a judicial hearing shall be scheduled and all persons listed in R.S. 28:69(A) are to receive notice.

C. When a physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist determines that the respondent meets the relevant criteria, he may execute an emergency certificate in accordance with R.S. 28:53, request an order for custody in accordance with R.S. 28:53:2, or seek a judicial commitment in accordance with R.S. 28:54. Any period of hospitalization shall not invalidate the order for assistive outpatient treatment.

D. If the patient refuses to take medication or refuses to take or fails blood or other laboratory tests as required by court order, the physician, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or psychologist may consider his refusal in determining whether the patient respondent is in need of inpatient treatment services.

§77. Fees and court costs

Assistive outpatient treatment proceedings shall be exempt from charges for filing fees or taxing of court costs."

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Cox to Engrossed House Bill No. 702 by Representative DuBuisson

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 4, between lines 26 and 27 insert the following:

"Section 3. R.S. 18:1300.25 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§1300.25.  Video draw poker devices; local option election; Natchitoches Parish

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the governing authority of Natchitoches Parish is hereby authorized to call and conduct an election on a proposition to allow the operation of video draw poker devices within that parish.

B. (1) The governing authority of Natchitoches Parish may call, by ordinance or resolution, an election on the proposition of whether the operation of video draw poker devices, as authorized by Chapter 8 of Title 27 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, shall be permitted within that parish.

B. (2)
(2) The ordinance or resolution shall specify the date of the election and the wording of the proposition to appear on the ballot.

C.(1) An election called as provided by this Section may be held on any date as provided by R.S. 18:402(F), provided it falls more than forty-five days but not more than six months after the meeting at which the resolution or ordinance calling the election is adopted.

(2) Except as provided in this Section, the election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the Election Code governing proposition elections. Any elector who was qualified to vote in the election may demand a recount of the ballots or contest the election in the manner and within the time provided by law for recount or contest of elections under the Election Code.

D.(1) If a majority of the electors voting in the election authorized pursuant to the provisions of this Section vote to permit the operation of video draw poker devices, then video draw poker devices may be operated in Natchitoches Parish as provided by law.

(2) If a majority of the electors voting in an election authorized pursuant to the provisions of this Section vote not to permit the operation of video draw poker devices in Natchitoches Parish, then no license shall be issued to conduct the operation of video draw poker devices in Natchitoches Parish, and the operation of video draw poker shall be prohibited in that parish.

E. The governing authority of Natchitoches Parish shall promptly notify the Louisiana Gaming Control Board of the results of the election.

F. The cost of the election provided for by this Section shall be borne by the governing authority of Natchitoches Parish.

G. The election authorized pursuant to this Section shall take place only once.

Point of Order

Rep. Ivey asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled that the above amendments were not germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

On motion of Rep. Cox, the amendments were withdrawn.
