(3) The incarceration resulted from the obligor's failure to comply with a court order to pay child support.

B. As used in this Section:"
(1) A notice was provided to the custodial party in accordance with Paragraph (2) of this Subsection and an objection was not received from such party.

(2) The suspension reduction of the order of child support order shall begin upon the date that the department files the affidavit. The support order shall be reduced to the minimum support provided in R.S. 9:315.14 until modified by subsequent order of the court.

(5) If the custodial party makes a timely objection, the department shall file a contradictory motion with the court that has jurisdiction over the order of child support.

(6) If a timely objection is made, the order of child support shall continue until further order of the court.

E.F. Nothing in this Section shall prevent either party from seeking a suspension or a modification of the order of child support under this Section or any other provision of law.

F.(1) Upon motion of either party or the Department of Children and Family Services, after notice and hearing, the court shall suspend the child support obligation unless it finds one of the conditions in Subsection A of this Section exists.

(2) If one of the conditions in Subsection A of this Section exists, the court shall use the child support guidelines in R.S. 9:315 et seq. to determine an obligor's support obligation during his period of incarceration.

G.(1) An order of support suspended in accordance with this Section shall resume by operation of law on the first day of the second full month after the obligor's release from incarceration.

(2) An order that suspends an obligor's order of support because of the obligor's incarceration shall contain a provision that the previous order will be reinstated on the first day of the second full month after the obligor's release from incarceration.

(3) Unless the terms of the order of support have been otherwise modified, the suspended order of support shall resume at the same terms that existed before the suspension.

H.(1) The suspension of an order of support in accordance with Nothing in this Section shall not affect any past due support that has accrued before the effective date of the suspension reduction.

(2) The provisions of this Section shall not apply if a court does not have continuing exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order of child support in accordance with Children's Code Article 1302.5.

AMENDMENT NO. 3
On page 2, delete lines 9 through 26 in their entirety and insert the following:

"(5) "Secretary" shall mean the secretary of the Department of Revenue.

C.(1) The amount of the credit provided for in this Section shall equal five percent of the total wages paid to an eligible re-entrant in an eligible job for twelve consecutive months following the release of the eligible re-entrant from imprisonment.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, the total amount of tax credits granted to any eligible business pursuant to this Section shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars per eligible re-entrant.

D.(1) The credit shall be earned upon certification by the Department of Public Safety and Corrections or the applicable sheriff to the department that the eligible business employed an eligible re-entrant in an eligible job for twelve consecutive months following the release of the eligible re-entrant from imprisonment.

(2) The credit shall be earned only once for each eligible re-entrant.

E.(1) The credit shall be allowed against any Louisiana income or franchise tax due from an eligible business for the taxable period in which the credit is earned.

(2) If the tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section exceeds the tax liability of an eligible business, the business may carry any unused credit forward and apply the unused credit against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed five years.

F.(1) Credits previously granted to an eligible business, but later disallowed may be recovered by the secretary pursuant to the provisions provided for in R.S. 47:1561 if recovery is initiated within three years from December thirty-first of the year in which the credits were earned.

(2) Any interest assessed and collected on the credits recovered pursuant to the provisions of this Subsection shall be at a rate of three percentage points above the rate provided for in R.S. 9:3500.

(3) Interest assessed and collected pursuant to this Subsection shall be computed from the original due date of the return on which the credit was taken.

G. A taxpayer shall not receive any other incentive for the job creation or hiring of an eligible re-entrant for which the taxpayer has received a tax credit pursuant to this Section.

H. The department may promulgate rules in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to establish procedures related to program eligibility and any other matter necessary to carry out this Section.

I. No credit shall be granted pursuant to this Section after June 30, 2027.

"(4) All signatures on petitions shall be accompanied by a self-affirmation in the manner provided in R.S. 33:4600.5.

§4600.5. Self-affirmation; penalties

A. The self-affirmation on a petition shall state the following: "I state, under penalty of law, that to my knowledge and belief the facts stated in the petition are true, that my signature and name are as shown on this petition, and that I have signed this petition or have been duly authorized to sign this petition by the entity identified hereunder."

B. A self-affirmation on a petition shall not be valid after one year has elapsed between the date of the self-affirmation as shown on the petition and the date the petition is filed with the tourist commission under R.S. 33:4600.4.

C. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, a self-affirmation shall be presumed valid unless competent evidence to the contrary is presented to and accepted by the tourist commission manager or the tourist commissioner determines otherwise.

D. If a person eligible to sign a petition is no longer capable of signing his name, such person may affirm by making a mark on the self-affirmation, with or without assistance, witnessed by the signature of another person.

E. It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to make a false statement on a self-affirmation on any petition filed under this Chapter. Any signature presented to the tourist commission shall serve as the equivalent of the business owner having been administered an oath or affirmation, acknowledging that the facts contained in the petition are true and correct to the best of his knowledge, subject to the penalties for perjury or false swearing.

F. It shall be unlawful for any person to, by use of force or any other means, unduly influence a person to sign a petition or to not sign a petition, falsely make, alter, forge or counterfeit any petition before or after it has been filed as provided in R.S. 33:4600.4, or to destroy, deface, mutilate, or tamper with any petition before or after it has been filed as provided in R.S. 33:4600.4.
