"E. When a violation is punishable by suspension of ten or more days or expulsion, or when a violation by a student organization is punishable by suspension or removal of the organization from the institution, the disciplinary procedures contained in the code of student conduct shall include but need not be limited to the following:

(1) Afford the accused student or organization the express presumption of innocence and set forth that he or the organization may not be deemed guilty of the violation until he or the organization formally acknowledges responsibility or the conclusion of a hearing where the institution has established every element of the alleged violation.

(2) Require the institution to maintain an administrative file of the disciplinary proceedings. The file shall include all documents and evidence in the institution's possession or control relevant to the alleged violation and the institution's investigation including but not limited to exculpatory evidence, documents submitted by any participant, and the institution's choice of a video recording, audio recording, or transcript of any disciplinary hearing ultimately held in the matter. The file shall not include privileged documents or internal memorandums that the institution does not intend to introduce as evidence at any hearing on the matter.

(3) Provide both the accused student or organization and the alleged victim reasonable continuing access to the administrative file and the ability to make copies of all evidence or documents in the file beginning at least seven business days prior to any disciplinary hearing, or sooner if otherwise specified under federal law, except that individual portions of the administrative file shall be redacted if disclosure of the evidence is required by law.

(4) Ensure that all disciplinary proceedings are carried out free from conflicts of interest by ensuring that there is no commingling of administrative or adjudicative roles. For purposes of this Paragraph, an institution shall be considered to commingle such roles if any individual carries out more than one of the following roles with respect to any disciplinary proceeding:

(a) Victim counselor and victim advocate.

(b) Investigator.

(c) Institutional prosecutor.

(d) Adjudicator.

(e) Appellate adjudicator."

"K. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to impair an institution's ability to take reasonable interim measures necessary to ensure the physical safety of members of the campus community during a timely investigation and adjudication of a student disciplinary issue including but not limited to the ability to make adjustments in student housing arrangements, impose conditions of mutual no-contact between the accused student and the alleged victim, temporarily suspend a student, or ban a student from campus. Such reasonable interim measures shall require the following:

(1) Within twenty-four hours of the alleged violation being deemed an immediate threat, written notice of the interim measure that explains the institution's reasons for enacting the measures.

(2) Within three business days of the written notice pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, unless otherwise waived by the accused student, an interim measure hearing to determine whether there is substantial evidence that the student poses a risk to the physical safety of a member of the campus community and that the interim measure is appropriate to mitigate that risk. At the hearing, both the accused student and the alleged victim shall have the right to be represented as provided in Subsection B of this Section. An accused student's waiver of the right to an interim measure hearing shall not constitute an admission of guilt or a waiver of any additional rights provided for in this Section."

On motion of Rep. McKnight, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. McKnight moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
