"A. Strict liability or liability of any kind including actions relating to succession rights and inheritance shall not be applicable to any No physician, hospital, in vitro fertilization clinic, manufacturer, provider of services, or their agent who acts in good faith in the screening, collection, conservation, preparation, transfer, or cryopreservation of the human ovum embryo fertilized in vitro for transfer to the human uterus, including the provisions of goods or services relating thereto, shall be subject to criminal prosecution or civil liability. Any immunity granted by this Section is applicable only to an action brought on behalf of the in vitro fertilized human ovum as a juridical person. Immunity granted by this Section is applicable to all actions including actions relating to succession rights and inheritance.

B.(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, "good faith" shall mean the use of reasonable care and diligence in the application of skill when in vitro fertilization services are rendered to a patient from any physician, hospital, in vitro fertilization clinic, or an agent of any of the persons or entities provided in this Paragraph.

(2) "Good faith" shall also include the standard of care required of every physician, hospital, in vitro fertilization clinic, manufacturer, provider of services, or an agent thereof in rendering in vitro fertilization services to a patient. This standard of care shall be exercised to that degree of skill ordinarily employed, under similar circumstances, by the members of this profession in good standing in the same community or locality.

C. Limitation of liability as provided by this Section shall not apply when an in vitro fertilized human embryo is rendered non-viable as a result of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

§133. Inheritance rights

Inheritance rights will not flow to the in vitro fertilized ovum embryo as a juridical person, unless the in vitro fertilized ovum embryo develops into an unborn child that is born in a live birth, or at any other time when rights attach to an unborn child in accordance with law. As a juridical person, the embryo or child born as a result of in vitro fertilization and in vitro fertilized ovum embryo donation to another couple does not retain its inheritance rights from the in vitro fertilization patients or a donor of gametes used in the in vitro fertilization process, unless the donor is a person from whom the child could otherwise inherit under laws of succession notwithstanding the in vitro fertilization process."

On page 1, delete lines 15 through 18 in their entirety and on page 2, delete lines 1 through 14 in their entirety, and insert the following:

"B.

(3)(a) The provisions of this Section shall not apply to any of the following agreements unless the agreement is entered into in conjunction with the issuance of state guaranteed bonds, notes, or certificates for which approval by the State Bond Commission would otherwise be required by the constitution of Louisiana:

(i) A lease or an installment purchase agreement that contains a nonappropriation clause and does not contain an anti-substitution clause.

(ii) A concession agreement, a cooperative endeavor agreement, or any other agreement or obligation that is based on a usage payment and monthly term or is not required to be categorized as long-term debt as defined by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board.

(b) The agreements provided for in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph shall meet the following requirements:

(i) The auditor for the political subdivision shall certify to the political subdivision that the annual appropriation is sufficient to cover the monthly payment obligations for the agreement for the remainder of the fiscal year in which the agreement is entered and that the auditor is not aware of any obligations that are reasonably anticipated to impair the political subdivision's ability to cover the monthly payment obligations for the agreement through its appropriation for the subsequent fiscal year.

(ii) The attorney general shall review the terms and conditions of the agreement and its addenda and shall certify, in writing, that the state is not an obligor under the political subdivision's agreement, that the full faith and credit of the state is not pledged to secure the obligations under the agreement, that there is a non-appropriation clause in the agreement, and that there is not an anti-substitution clause in the agreement. If the attorney general finds that the agreement complies with these requirements, he shall certify that the agreement is in compliance with the provisions of this Paragraph. This certification shall be incontestable on the grounds that the contracting parties failed to obtain approval of the State Bond Commission. If the attorney general finds that the agreement fails to meet these requirements, the attorney general shall direct the political subdivision to submit the agreement to the State Bond Commission for approval pursuant to the rules and regulations of the commission. Contracting parties shall not be required to obtain recertification of the same terms and conditions in future agreements. Modifications to the terms and conditions of any agreement shall be submitted to the attorney general for review and approval. The attorney general shall review and certify or reject the agreement in writing within thirty days of submission of an agreement to his office. Any rejection shall provide the specific reason the agreement is in violation of this Subsection. If the attorney general fails to certify or reject an agreement in writing within thirty days of submission to his office, the agreement shall be deemed to be certified.

(c) A political subdivision entering into an agreement for infrastructure services and upgrades pursuant to this Paragraph without the approval of the State Bond Commission shall, within fourteen days of entering into the agreement, submit a notice to the secretary of the Department of Economic Development that includes a description of the public benefit and local impact to the political subdivision and the anticipated completion date of any infrastructure upgrades.

(4) If an agreement listed in Subparagraph (3)(a) of this Subsection is entered"
