

Acadiana's News Leader Lafayette Redistricting Meeting

Lafayette Redistricting Meeting

Posted: Feb 22, 2011 11:08 PM CST

A meeting was held Tuesday night at the Acadiana Center for the Arts to give state and local government and the public a better look at the redistricting process. Those in charge of the process gave a presentation to show how the 2010 Census will affect district lines for all levels of government in the state of Louisiana.

Those in attendance were given the chance to speak about the presentation time many used to plead their case for redistricting changes.

Lafayette Parish Accounted for almost half of the growth in the state over the past decade. Lafayette City-Parish President Joey Durel used his time to request more representation for Lafayette.
