ACADIANA DELEGATION ELECTS OFFICERS

The Acadiana Legislative Delegation of the Louisiana Legislature has elected its officers for 2026. State Representative Beau Beaulieu will serve as Chair for the fourth time. Beaulieu proudly represents House District 48 which includes Iberia, Lafayette, and St. Martin parishes.

Representative Chad Boyer (District 46/ St. Landry and St. Martin Parishes) will continue his role as Vice Chairman and Representative Troy Hebert (District 31/Lafayette and Vermilion Parishes) will take his third term as the Secretary/Treasurer.

The Acadiana Delegation’s Executive Committee is as follows:

Rep. Chance Henry (District 42/Acadia and Lafayette Parishes)

Rep. Annie Spell (District 45/Lafayette Parish)

Rep. Dustin Miller (District 40/St. Landry Parish)

Rep. Josh Carlson (District 43/Lafayette Parish)

Sen. Gerald Boudreaux (District 24/Lafayette, St. Landry and St. Martin Parishes)

Sen. Brach Myers (District 23/Lafayette Parish)

“Acadiana isn’t just where we do business; it’s our home. It’s where our traditions are strong, our people work hard, and our communities look out for one another,” said Delegation Chair Beau Beaulieu. “I’m proud to lead our efforts to bring new opportunities and investment to Acadiana. By growing our economy and honoring our roots, the Acadiana Delegation remains one of the most effective regional groups of lawmakers here at the Capitol, where we’re building a future that reflects the pride we all share in calling Acadiana home.”

“I love living in Acadiana and I am proud to represent such a special part of our state. Ensuring the Acadiana region and its needs are understood and addressed by the Legislature as a whole is an honor,” said Vice Chair Chad Boyer. “The collaborative approach our delegation brings to Baton Rouge results in the successful passage of bills as well as the appropriation of much needed funds for local projects and priorities, and I’m proud to serve in this leadership role for the second year.” Our delegation is committed to making sure our constituents’ voices are not only heard, but acted upon so our region continues to thrive.”

“I am excited to continue my leadership role with the Delegation,” said Secretary/Treasurer Troy Hebert. “Uniting our efforts to address the pressing needs of our 22 parishes is both necessary and rewarding.”

Formed in 1979, the Acadiana Legislative Delegation consists of 35 members of the House of Representatives and 13 Senators elected from the 22 parishes recognized by the state as the Acadiana Region.
