"(C) The one hundred five delegates to the convention to be elected from representative districts shall be elected at a special election to be held as provided in this Act. The special primary election for such delegates shall be held at the primary election on November 5, 2024, and, if necessary, the special general election for delegates shall be held at the general election to be held on December 7, 2024. The governor shall issue a proclamation and give notice of the election to be held under this Section not later than June 3, 2024. Each person desiring to become a candidate for election as a delegate from a representative district shall qualify as a candidate from the particular representative district he seeks to represent by filing a statement of candidacy with the clerk of court for the parish in which the candidate is registered to vote during the qualifying period for candidates in the primary election on November 5, 2024, as otherwise provided by law. Qualification as a candidate shall be without regard to party affiliation. Notwithstanding R.S. 18:453 or 461, a person may qualify for one delegate position and one other office other than delegate.

Section 3. Conduct of election for elected delegates. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the primary and general elections for convention delegates shall be conducted and the results thereof published and promulgated in accordance with the provisions for the election of candidates for public office in the Louisiana Election Code. All qualified electors shall be entitled to vote in their respective election precincts without regard to party affiliation. The votes for candidates for the office of delegate shall be tabulated as in the case of candidates for public office.

(B) The costs of the elections authorized by this Act for election of delegates shall be paid as provided by the Louisiana Election Code for payment of costs of elections in which a candidate for the state legislature appears on the ballot.

(C) All offenses, prosecutions, penalties, and punishments arising out of or in connection with the elections required by this Act shall be governed by the applicable laws of the state.

Section 4. Vacancies. In the event of the death or the inability or unwillingness of any elected delegate to serve, whether before or during the convention, the speaker of the House of Representatives, the president of the Senate, and the governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment, by unanimous consent of the three officials, of a person from the same district who possesses the qualifications for delegate. In the event of the death or the inability or unwillingness to serve of any other delegate, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original selection within thirty days after the vacancy.

Section 5. Public hearings. (A) A joint committee of the House Committee on House and Governmental Affairs and the Senate Committee on Senate and Governmental Affairs shall conduct a series of public hearings in each region of the state to solicit public comment regarding the constitution prior to the convening of the constitutional convention. The joint committee shall submit to the convention on January 6, 2025, a report of the comments received and any recommendations related thereto.

(B) The legislature shall provide that each public hearing is broadcast live via the internet. If a technical difficulty occurs during a public hearing that impairs the broadcast of the hearing, the hearing shall be temporarily paused to address the issue with the broadcast; however the failure to resolve the issue shall not require the hearing to be terminated."
